ANOTHER PRIMARY IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Blease Leads Jones in Palmetto State, But Fails to Get Majority

BEN TILLMAN RENOMINATED

J. Frazer Lyon Assured of Nomination for Attorney General—The Other Successful Candidates —Heavy Vote.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 28., (3:30 A. M.)—South Carolina's sensational balloting of ballots for the Democratic nomination for Governor was still in the balance early today. Official returns from every county in the State are expected to be necessary to decide whether Cole L. Blease, the incumbent, or Ira B. Jones, formerly Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, have secured a majority of the votes cast. The vote of J. T. Duncan, the third candidate for the governorship nomination may be sufficient to keep either of the two leading candidates from obtaining a majority. In this case a second State primary will be necessary.

Former Chief Justice Jones led by a narrow margin in the balloting up to 1 o'clock when Governor Blease assumed the lead by 1,474 votes over former Judge Jones. J. T. Duncan at that time had polled 1,469 votes, giving Governor Blease a bare majority of five votes. At 2 o'clock this morning the returns gave Governor Blease 53,047 votes; former Judge Jones, 52,133, and J. T. Duncan, 1,479. Governor Blease's lead was then 914 votes which was not sufficient to give him a majority of the total vote.

Columbia, S. C., August 27.—Returns from three-fouths of the precincts in the State in today's Democratic primary indicate that another primary will be necessary to decide the gubernatorial nomination.

Ira B. Jones, former Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, assumed the lead over the incumbent, Cole L. Blease, early in the evening, but shortly after 1 o'clock Blease came to the front.

At that hour the vote for the three candidates stood:

Jones, 47,421; Blease, 48,895; Duncan, 1,469.

Indications at this hour were that United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman had been renominated over W. J. Talbert and N. B. Dial.

In the Sixth Congressional district Representative Ellerbe apprently has been defeated for re-nomination by J. W. Ragsdale, who according to incomplete returns, had secured 1,000 more votes than the incumbent. In the Second, Third and Fifth districts Representatives Byres, Aiken and Finley appear to have been re-nominated.

The following State officials seem assured of nomination:

J. Frazen Lyon, Attorney General; S. L. Carter, State Treasurer; John G. Richards, Jr., Railroad commissioner; C. A. Smith, Lieutenant governor. No opposition was encountered by W. W. Moore, Adjutant General; A. W. Jones, Comptroller General; E. J. Watson, Commissioner of Agriculture and J. W. Swearington, Superintendent of Education.

Keen interest was manifested in practically all of the contests and indications are that the total vote will be unusually heavy.

Jones In the Lead Early

Columbia, S. C., August 27.—Incomplete returns from today's Democratic primary in South Carolina show that Ira B. Jones, former Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, is leading Cole L. Blease, the incumbent, in the race for the gubernatorial nomination. Returns from only a fifth of the total precincts had been received at 8 o'clock tonight. Jones then had 1,600 more votes than Blease. J. T. Duncan, the third candidate, has polled a light vote.

United States Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, according to early returns, is leading both his opponents, W. J. Talbert and N. B. Dial.

According to the State primary law, a majority is necessary to secure the nomination. In the event that the leading candidate fails to get a majority, a second primary will be held for the two leading candidates.

Returns are coming in slowly and indications are that the outcome of several of the contests will not be known until tomorrow.

At 9:45 o'clock, with about 40,000 votes heard from—about 35 per cent of the probable total—Jones is about 2,300 votes ahead of Blease for Governor.

Early returns indicate the re-election of Representative Byrnes in the Second; Aiken, in the Third; Finley, in the Fifth. Representative Ellerbe and J. W. Ragsdale are running close in the sixth.

TAFT TAKING HIS VACATION

Beverly, Mass., August 27.—President Taft today got his first real taste of vacation since Congress convened last December. He reached Beverly early, had breakfast with Mrs. Taft and his son Charles, played 18 holes of golf and tonight with Mrs. Taft took a long motor ride.

The vacation comes to a temporary end tomorrow and for the next 10 days Mr. Taft will be in Beverly only about half his time. He will visit several cities to keep speaking engagements made long ago.

Tomorrow's trip takes the President to Columbus, Ohio, where he will be the central figure in that city's celebration of its centenary as a State capital. He is due in Columbus at 7:30 Thursday morning; will take breakfast with Governor Harmon and other officials; hear German singing societies serenade in Capitol Square; visit the State Fair; lunch with the State Board of Agriculture; watch the races; hold a reception in the capitol, and dine with guests of the centennial celebration commission at night.

Leaving Columbus early Friday morning he is due in Boston Saturday. His principal speech of the trip will be made at the dinner.

On the fourth of September the President will open at Washington the International Congress of Chemistry and will hold a reception at the White House that afternoon for delegates to the congress. Leaving Washington on the morning of the 5th he will travel to New York, aboard the yacht Mayflower and steam to New London, Conn., where on the sixth he will address the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association. From New London Mr. Taft probably will return to Beverly on the Mayflower. For two weeks after his return from the New London visit the President expects to have few interruptions in his vacation plans. He is looking forward to many days of golf and evenings of motor rides..

DOUBLE DEATH ATTEMPT.

Traveling Salesman Kills Wife In Columbus—Wounds Himself.

Columbus, Ga., August 27.—Mrs. Andrew M. Roberts, shot through the lungs by her husband today, died late this afternoon. Roberts, who shot himself in the head after fatally wounding his wife while she was standing at the telephone in their home, is in the hospital in a critical condition tonight. He says that he is sorry that he shot his wife, but gives no explanation for the killing.

In addition to the murder of Mrs. Roberts and the attempted suicide of her husband, there has been one other suicide and an attempted suicide here this week. Hiram Prendergrass, a policeman, shot himself dead Sunday night. Joseph Kent, a mill worker, took poison with suicidal intent Monday night and is still in a serious condition.

THORP HOPES FOR NEW MARK

Carlisle Indian Wants to Eclipse Sheridan's Great Record

New York, Aug. 27.—James Thorp, the Carlisle Indian athlete, hopes to achieve a new world's record in the all-around athletic championship at Celtic Park next Monday.

The present record is held by Martin Sheridan, who made a total of 1,385 points in the championship contest of 1909. Thorp believes he can better this score by nearly 700 if he is in his top form.

Sheridan will be unable to compete this year and Thorp's chief rival will be John Bredemus, of Princeton, who held the title for one season two years ago.

WILL MODIFY THE NEW POSTAL LAW

Hitchcock Perfecting Plans for Delivery of Important Mail

HOTELS AND PAPERS FAVORED

Their Mail Will be Sorted on The Trains and Distributed—Individuals and Firms Will Receive None.

Washington, August 27.—Plans were perfected by Postmaster General Hitchcock whereby the administration of the new law prohibiting the delivery of mail on Sundays will have no serious effect upon the handling of important mail matter.

Holders of lockboxes at first and second class postoffice will be made by carriers on the street or at postoffice windows. Mail for hotels guests and newspapers will be delivered to them through their lock boxes by a simple arrangement of having that mail sorted on the railway mail cars before it reaches its destination. Such mail will be regarded as "transit matter," and will be distributed immediately upon its arrival at the office of destination, thus pracically insuring a speedier delivery to the addresses than heretofore has been the case. This distribution will require a minimum of Sunday work and the distribution of other mail received on Sunday will be made after midnight of Sunday so that it may be delivered by the carriers on their first tour on Monday.

After all day conferences with the experts of his department Postmaster General Hitchcock tonight issued a statement explanatory of his administration of the new law. His assurance is that there will be no embarrassent to the business public and that through the arrangements he outlines urgent mail matters will reach its destination promptly. Orders necessary to carry Mr. Hitchcock's plans into effect will be issued immediately.

The Postmaster General's statement follows:

"There appears to be some misapprehension as regards the provision in the postal bill relating to the delivery of mail on Sundays. This provision does not require the closing of postoffices on Sunday, which would be quite impossible, owing to the fact that the transit mail has to be sorted and also the mail collected in cities for dispatch to other destinations. To stop the movement of this mail would mean a serious clogging of the whole system of mail transportation and consequent inconvenience to the public.

"At present most of the mail received on Sunday for delivery by carrier on Monday is worked after midnight on Sunday and therefore the law will not affect this mail. It will be delivered as promptly as hitherto. Mail received up to midnight on Saturday for lock boxes will be distributed to the boxes and will be available to box holders on Sunday as usual.

"There is at present no street delivery of mail by letter carriers on Sunday and therefore the law makes no change in this regard. In short the only mail that will be affected under a reasonable construction of the new law is that received at the postoffices on Sunday and hitherto sorted on that day for distribution to lockboxes.

"As the purpose of the law, which was clearly enacted in the interest of employees, is to reduce as far as practicable the amount of Sunday labor, the work of distributing Sunday mail to lock boxes wil be limited to certain classes of mail that cannot be held until Monday morning without serious inconvenience to the addressee. This mail will include that for newspapers and hotel guests. The latter is peculiarly transient in character and should not be delayed. This mail, like the special delivery mail, will be sorted out at the offices of dispatch and on the railway mail trains in order to simpify the work of distributing it in the postoffices on Sunday.

"As practically all business houses are now closed on Sunday they do not object to the plan which has been in force for a year, of holding their mail until Monday morning, realizing the benefit thus conferred on postal employes who are thereby relieved from Sunday labor.

"In order to give the new provision as liberal a construction as possible postmasters will be instructed on application to have their employes sort out in emergency cases on Sunday, letters of special importance. This will supplement the present privilege of having all mail delivered on Sunday that carries a special delivery stamp.

"By the proposed changes in the method of putting up mail in the offices of origin and in its handling on the railway mail trains, it is believed that a satisfactory distribution can be made in postoffices on Sundays with far less work than is now required. Thus the law can be made to confer great benefits on postal employes without inconvenience to the public."

Minority Leader Mann, of the House, author of the provision prohibiting the delivery to the "general public" of mail on Sunday, discussed

AMERICAN'S CASE TAKEN UP

State Department Will Ask Mexican Government to Give W. C. Nichols, Convicted of Murder, a New Trial—Contentions.

Washington, August 27.—The State Department, it was learned today, is preparing to make representations to the Mexican government to bring about a new trial for W. C. Nichols, an American convicted for murder at Tampico. Nichols was sentenced to eight years imprisonment for killing a man, resposibility for whose death is said to have been confessed by the Mexican. The department has taken up the matter at the instance of Counsul Miller at Tampico, who reported that the trial of Nichols was in violation of all the rules and justice of Mexican law.

The Mexican alleged to have committed the murder, whose name is unknown to the State Department, is declared to have publicly admitted the crime. Later it is reported he appeared in court and gave testimony in the case and he has not been arrested. Nichols was emppowered to arrest the man who was killed—Cevallos, by name. By the consul's report Vevallos was a desperado and it is stated that charges were pending against him in almost every court in the vicinity.

The information from Consul Milceir regarding Nichols' conviction which came to the State Department, did not give Nichols official status further than to state that he had authority to make the arrest of the man who was killed.

It is believed here that the Mexican government will be called upon by the United States to see that Nichols receives a re-trial and that all the evidence in the case is given due consideration by the court.

The State Department's information regarding the trial was that evidence in the accused American's favor apparently was utterly disregarded.

OUTLINES

Early returns from the South Carolina primaries gave Blease a small lead over Jones for the Gubernatorial nomination.

President Taft began his vacation by spending a pleasant day at Beverly and leaves today for Columbus, Ohio, to fill a speaking engagement.

Governor Wilson yesterday declared he was absolutely in favor of publicity and would welcome a thorough investigation of his campaign expenses.

GOVERNOR WILSON FAVORS PUBLICITY

Democratic Nominee Welcomes Investigation of Campaign Expenses

M'COMBS REFUSED RYAN'S AID

Would Not Let Anyone Ask Financier For a Contribution—Congressmen Will Call at Summer Capital Today.

Sea Girt, N. J., August 27.—"I am absolutely in favor of publicity and welcome a thorough investigation of my campaign expenses. I have always approved of it and will welcome it as a matter of course."

In this way Governor Woodrow Wilson tonight outlined his attitude toward the resolution introduced in the Senate by Senator Penrose, calling among other things, for an inquiry into the pre-convention expenditures of the various candidates.

The Governor was asked who his principal backers were in the primary campaign.

"To tell the truth, I don't know myself except in a general way who had charge of my campaign in the various States," replied the Governor. "I merely kept a general oversight over my campaign fund. Three times we had no fund at all."

The Governor said he could not even estimate his pre-convention expenses. He said most of the money, however, was raised from Princeton graduates. "Practically all the money was spent for publicity," said the Governor," "for distributing news through the press. We did not ask papers to use it. We did not volunteer. We sent it out wherever it was asked for."

The Governor said that so far as he knew no campaign contributions were declined. With reference to the Thomas F. Ryan incident which developed in connection with the Watterson-Harvey-Wilson episode, the Governor was asked if he had not declined a contribution from Mr. Ryan.

"I personally did not," answered the Governor, "but Mr. McCombs did But I ought not to say that because it leaves the impression that Mr. Ryan offered money. He did not. I declined to see Mr. Ryan and Mr. McCombs declined to let anybody ask Mr. Ryan for a contribution."

The Governor returned today from Trenton, where he spent a busy day. All through the hours in which he was receiving callers an Italian sculptor worked away modeling a clay bust. A London newspaper man brought the sculptor, who has made busts of Taft and Roosevelt, informing the Governor that the likeness was desired because of the Governor's facial resemblance to Joseph Chamberlain, the English statesman.

Tomorrow morning Governor Wilson expects a number of Congressmen to call on him. Louis D. Brandeis, of Boston, who recently stated that he would suport the Governor, also was a visitor at the Summer capitol.

MICHIGAN PRIMARIES.

Light Vote Polled in State—Hot Fight in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., August 27.—Practically no returns were available before 10 o'clock tonight in the Statewide primary election held through Michigan today. The polls in the majority of districts closed late. Little interest seemed to have been manifested in the State tickets, where the contests were few and the vote was very light. The principal contest for an important State office was between Amos Musselman, of Grand Rapids, and Secretary of State Fred. C. Martindale for the Republican nomination for Governor. The result was expected to be close.

Several of the city and county elections, however, were bitterly contested, especially in Detroit. The features of the Detroit fight were the battle between Mayor William B. Thompson and Police Justice E. J. Jeffries, for the mayoralty nomination, and the contests for renominations of the 18 aldermen recently arrested on bribery charges.

The result is not expected to be definitely known before tomorrow.

The early returns received from the Eighth Congressional district indicated the renomination of Representatives James Fordney over Emery Townsend, his opponent of two years ago, by an increased majority.

Two Sergeants Stand With Their Colonel During Review

San Francisco, Aug. 27.—An unusual military ceremony took place here late yesterday in a review of the Sixteenth Infantry in recognition of 30 years' service of two enlisted men, who are retiring. They are Sergeant William Morrow, Company M, and Sergeant Joseph Shattuck, Company H.

The two retiring soldiers showing little effect from their years in the field, stood at the right of Col. Cornelius Gardener, in front of whom the troops passed. When the parade disbanded the veterans, and commended them for the excellent discharge of their duties.

T. R. WORKING ON STATEMENT

Col. Roosevelt Preparing Campaign Investigation Evidence In Form Of Letter—Wants Parker And Sherman Called

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Colonel Roosevelt desires to bring the names of Alton B. Parker, Democratic nominee for the Presidency in 1904, and James Sherman, Vice President of the United States, into the inquiry into campaign contributions authorized yesterday by the Senate, by the adoption of the Penrose resolution.

He said today that he would place their names before the Senate committee in his letter to Senator Clapp. This letter, upon which Colonel Roosevelt is now at work, will embody some of the things to which he would have testified yesterday before the committee had it granted him a hearing.

"I shall include in my letter to Senator Clapp," the Colonel said, "the letter which I wrote to Judge Parker in 1904 and my letter to Jim Sherman on the Harriman contribution. I think they are pertinent to the inquiry and I want to get them on the record."

The letter to Judge Parker, to which Colonel Roosevelt made reference several times recently, was in reply to Judge Parker's charge that the Roosevelt campaign fund had been enriched by a contribution of $100,000 from the Standard Oil Company. The charge was made and the reply written in the height of the campaign of 1904, at the time when Judge Parker was the standard bearer of his party. The letter to Mr. Sherman gave the Roosevelt version of the Harriman-Roosevelt controversy over a contribution by the late E. H. Harriman of $200,000 to the Republican campaign fund of 1904.

Nor will Colonel Roosevelt allow to go unchallenged the report that Philander C. Knox, now Secretary of State, saw him in 1904 as he was dictating in a letter to George B. Cortelyou about the alleged Standard Oil contribution, and told him that the money had been sent and could not be returned and that Colonel Roosevelt remarked that the letter was being "written for the record." Colonel Roosevelt said Mr. Knox may have heard me say "these letters will put the record straight" or "this will establish a record of my attitude," but it is certainly not to be inferred from this remark (I don't say that I did make it, but I may have) that they were written solely for the record. They were genuine letters and expressed just what I wanted to express when I first heard a report that the Standard Oil had contributed or wanted to contribute to my campaign.'

It will be several days before Colonel Roosevelt's letter to Senator Clapp will be made public. The Colonel said tonight that he did not receive until late today a copy of John D. Archbold's testimony before the Senate Investigating committee which is to form the basis of an important portion of his letter and that he had a long siege ahead with his secretary before finishing his work. It is probable that the letter will be given out early next week.

Plans for Colonel Roosevelt's tour of Vermont were completed today. He will leave Oyster Bay tomorrow evening for Vermont. Although he is to cover most of the country at the rate of a State a day he set aside three days for Vermont because of the importance which is traditionally attached to the outcome of the Vermont election as a barometer sign in politics.

The Progressive ticket in New York State will be named without any suggestion from Colonel Roosevelt, he said tonight, after a conference with Comptroller William A. Prendergast, of New York city, today, at which the New York State situation was discussed.

THE LEWIS CASE BRINGS ON FIGHT

American Bar Association Declares Against Membership of Negroes

OPPOSES RECALL OF JUDGES

Movement Is Denounced As Dangerous to the Country—Wickersham Claims Resolution Doesn't Affect Lewis

Milwaukee, Wis., August 27.—The American Bar Association today adopted a resolution requiring that hereafter when negro attorneys apply for membership their race must be made known in the application. Attorney General George W. Wickersham, in a heated debate, declared the resolution recognized the status as members of William H. Lewis, assistant to the Attorney General and two other negro members who have been unseated by the executive committee. The race question precipitated a fight which was abruptly ended by an appeal by former Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson that further discussion would bring criticism of the association.

Immediately Mr. Wickersham jumped to his feet and said:

"I hope this resolution will pass, for it recognizes the legality of these negro members. It was I who was chiefly responsible for bringing this subject up."

Scores of members protested against adoption of the resolution, saying it had always been the policy to exclude negro members. Others said while this resolution allowed the present negro members to remain, it would preclude the admission of more negro members because the fact of their race would be made known to the executive committee. The resolution offered by Mr. Dickinson, was:

"Whereas, three persons of the colored race were elected to membership in this association without knowledge upon the part of those electing them that they were of that race, and are now members of this association.

"Resolved, That as it never has been contemplated that members of the colored race should become members of the association the several local counsels are directed if at any time any of them shall recommend a person of the colored race for membership, to accompany the recommendation with a statement of the fact that he is of such race."

Fifty-four lawyers, with at least one from each State today completed for presentation to the association a report denouncing as dangerous to the country all movements for the recall of judges or judicial decisions.

The report cites that in Ohio the constitutional convention declined to apply recall to the judges, but provided that laws should be passed for the prompt removal on complaint and hearing of judges for any misconduct involving moral turpitude. The report says this substantially is the system used in Massachusetts, New York and several other States, and says that in addition to California and Oregon where the judicial recall exists, the only other States which have taken steps toward the recall are Arizona, Colorado, Nevada and North Dakota. In the latter States, the report asserts, the bar associations have started campaigns against the recall. Those who signed the report include Frank B. Kellogg, Minnesota; William B. Hornblower, New York; Lawrence Maxwell, Ohio; Edmund F. Trabue, Kentucky. Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary, is named as one of those who originated the committee "to expose the fallacy of judicial recall."

'We are pleased to report," says the committee, "that the bar associations of many States have taken action opposed to the principle of judicial recall. In numerous other States action undoubtedly will be taken. We maintain that the recall applied to judges will tend to deprive the public of judges of ability, character, high sense of duty and a due regard to enlightened public sentiment and that a judiciary is absolutely necessary to the existence of a constitutional democracy.

"The application of a recall to an ordinary official may be a question of expediency, but it is not fundamentally wrong. To apply it to the judiciary is in violation of the principles of government which ages of experience have demonstrated to be wise. In the States and in the Federal government we have the right of impeachment and in several of the States the right of removal of a judge by the Legislature. If the right of impeachment is not sufficient, an adequate remedy can be created for the removal of a judge for conduct inconsistent with his office after complaint is made and he is given an opportunity to be heard in his own defense. In this way the independence of the judiciary is maintained and a judge is removed simply for incapacity or misconduct in office.

"The advocates of this system claim that it is in the interest of the common people. This we deny. For more than 300 years the greatest bulwark for the protection of the mass of the people has been the courts. There

RUN NECK AND NECK.

Close Contest in Michigan Over Gubernatorial Nomination.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 27.—Amos Musselman, of Grand Rapids, and Secretary of State Fred C. Martindale, are running neck and neck for the Republican nomination for Governor of Michigan. Scattering returns from the Statewide primaries received up to midnight tonight, indicated that the principal struggle is so close as to preclude any possibility of determining before Wednesday morning, at the earliest, which of the two men is the probable nominee.

The only fight for United States Senator is on the Democratic ticket, and Alfred Lucking, of Detroit, held a strong early lead over George P. Hummer, of Holland.

Early returns indicated that at least three important Congressional contests have been decided. Representative Fordney, Republican, from the Eighth district, and Representative Samuel W. Smith, Republican, of the Sixth district, appeared to have been renominated beyond a doubt. Louis C. Cramton, Republican, of Laper, is conceded the nomination to succeed Representative Henry McMorran, of Port Huron.

Boston, Mass., August 27.—Jack Britton, of Chicago, easily defeated Eddie Murphy, of Boston, before the Pilgrim Athletic Association tonight, the referee stopping the fight in the 11th round. From the first bell Britton carried the fight to Murphy, who was unable to guard effectively and rallied only once, in the seventh. In the 10th round Murphy went down under a rain of blows to the face, but was saved by the bell. The 11th round had gone but a few seconds when Murphy was again down and on the second fall the referee closed the bout which had but one more round to go.

In the preliminaries Tommy Murray, of Philadelphia, knocked out Gus Lenny, of Boston, in the first round of a scheduled six-round bout.

New York, August 27.—New York took a double-header from Cleveland here today, the scores being 8 to 4 and 6 to 4. In the first game McConnell easily outpitched Baskette and Kahler. Collegians Davis won his first game of the season when he landed the second game. Lelivelt, the former Washington outfielder, made his New York debut and made four singles and a triple in the two games.

Philadelphia, August 27. — Roy Crabb, formerly of the Davenport, Iowa, club, made his debut with the home team against Detroit today and defeated the visitors 4 to 2. The game was won in the first inning. With the bases filled as the result of a single and two passes by Mullin, McInnis tripled to the right center field fence and kept on home when Crawford threw wild.

Washington, August 27.—St. Louis drove Cashion from the box in the fifth inning of today's game, also hit Schegg hard and easily defeated Washington 9 to 3. Baumgardner was a great puzzle and only let up in the ninth, with the game safe, the locals making five of their eight hits in that inning.

Washington .. ..000 000 003—3 8 4

Baumgardner and Krichell; Cashion, Schegg and Henry. Time 2:15. Umpires Egan and Evans.

Boston, August 27.—Boston and Chicago played 12 innings to an 8 to 8 tie, darkness ending the game after electric lights appeared. The game was full of exciting moments. Chicago's early lead was lost when Boston scored five runs off Cicotte in the fourth, largely on Speaker's home run and two passes. Chicago scored a like number of tallies on Bedient and Hall in the sixth, errors contributing. The two runs which Boston lacked of a tie came in the seventh, Cicotte being re-placed by Walsh after the first was scored on Carrigan's hit. Hall's hit off Walsh then drove in the tying run. Both teams made stiff bids to score the deciding run, but darkness fell without decision being reached. Schalk's all-round playing was noteworthy.

Chicago .. ..101 105 000 000—8 19 3

NOT MEN WANTED.

Fonda, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Detectives William H. Dorsey and Sullivan, of the Burns agency, stated late tonight that they were perfectly satisfied that the two suspects arrested here are neither "Gyp, the Blood," nor "Leftie Louie." Additional information from headquarters in New York has shown that there is sufficient difference in the resemblance to warrant their discharge on any charge connecting them with the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The men are, however, held on the technical charge of peddling without a license.

William D. Dorsey, a private detective, tonight said that the man giving his name as H. Krueger, held on suspicion of being implicated in the Rosenthal case, with two exceptions fitted the description of Harry H. Horowitz (Gyp, the Blood). According to the detective, the suspect held here is about three-quarters of an inch taller than Horowitz, and has black hair instead of chestnut. Two other detectives said to be from New York, reached here tonight and after an examination of Krueger said he bore a strong resemblance to "Gyp, the Blood," but they were not sure of their man. Krueger and his companion are still being held.

ROOSEVELT MEN WIN.

Kansas Committee Asks Roosevelt Electors to Get Off Ticket.

Topeka, Kans., August 27.—By a vote of 80 to 62 the Republican party council late tonight defeated a resolution to force the Roosevelt electors on an independent ticket.

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 27.—Taft followers won in the Republican State party council here today, when a resolution was adopted — 40 to 37 — in the State committee, asking the Roosevelt electors to resign from the Republican ticket, and move into the independent column for the general election.

William Allen White, National committeeman for the Progressive party in Kansas, announced this action meant practically a third party State ticket for Kansas.

Waldo Makes Public Names of Owners Renting to Gamblers.

New York, August 27.—Police Commissioners Waldo made public tonight a list of places raided by the police as gambling resorts during the last year and the names of the owners of the property on which the resorts were conducted. Among the names mentioned are those of many prominent in the financial, religious and social life of the city.

The commissioner turned the list, which includes nearly 400 places, over to the District Attorney, who will use it as a basis of a proposed John Doe proceedings before Justice Goff next month, but which it is expected to close police corruption. Another list containing the names of owners of disorderly houses raided during the same period, June 1, 1911 to August 1, 1912, is being prepared by Commissioner Waldo for the same purpose.

The summoning of many of these owners, as witnesses at the John Doe proceedings, is understood to be part of the plan of the District Attorney, in order to determine the responsibility of the owners in allowing their property to be rented for gambling purposes which is a misdemeanor.

Among the names of the owners is that of Sailors' Snug Harbor, a wealthy charitable institution in Staten Island, the Lorillard estate, that of the Lorillard family of the millionair tobacco manufacturers and J. Edgar Leaycraft and Edgar C. Leaycraft, of the real estate firm of J. Leacraft and Company, both prominent in Methodist church and missionary work.

A notable feature of the list is the comparatively few number of convictions which followed the arrests made at the raids, a very large majority of the prisoners having been discharged either by the court or the grand jury. In view of testimony brought out before the grand jury investigating the graft feature of the Rosenthal murder case that the police often weakned their evidence against gamblers who had "come across" after they had been raided, it is expected that the district attorney will investigate the reason for the few convictions in the proceedings before Justice Goff.

WORMS ATTACK ALFALFA.

Experiments in Lenoir County—Excursion to Norfolk—River Stage.

Kinston, N. C., August 27.—The efforts of J. Z. Brooks, of Grifton, to grow alfalfa on his farm near that place, were brought to a sudden end by the inroads of the army worm on the crop. However, Mr. Brooks' experiment had been sufficiently successful to prove beyond question that the growing of the legume in this section can be made profitable, and he had cut three times this year, with about two tons from each cutting, on the two acres sown. He was expecting to cut again this week when Dr. T. H. Faulkner, of this city, who is interested in the growing of alfalfa in this section, visited the farm, and discovered that the crop had been devasted by the worms. The field had been stripped by the pests within 48 hours' time, and had the appearance of having been burned over at a casual inspection.

A large trainload of excursionists went from this section to Norfolk yesterday, on what was probably the last Summer excursion of the season over that road to the Virginia resorts. The excursion rates were universal over the system, and the crowd of pleasure seekers was a record breaking one. At no time in the road's history has so much traffic of this nature been carried on as during the past several months. A crowd of 1,200 went over the Beaufort division Sunday to Morehead and Beaufort.

Neuse river here rose two feet last night, and is continuing to rise rapidly, owing to the heavy rains of the past week. During the months of June and July and part of August the stream was almost fordable opposite this city, but with the heavy freshets now rushing down stream, the river has threatened to overflow its banks, as was the case in May. Reports from Seven Springs and other points is that the condition of the river is serious.

THE TRUCKERS' ORGANIZATION.

East Carolina Journal Speaks Encouragingly of the Outlook.

Reviewing the work of the annual meeting of the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association in this city last week, the Association in this of this city, in its issue just out says of the resolution passed to continue the work of the organization:

"The same was promptly seconded and speeches in support of this action were made by Z. W. Whitehead, W. L. Hill, J. A. Westbrook, William Struthers, J. O. Carr, D. S. Hines, Chas. N. Evans and others. It was brought out and established beyond the successful contradiction of any man that the East Carolina Truck and Fruit Growers' Association had accomplished from time to time everything that had ever been done for the benefit of the trucking industry throughout this whole section, including such important factors as reduction in freight rates, faster schedules, better refrigeration, more systematic and intelligent distribution, higher prices, collection of claims for over charges, and damages to shipments in transit, loss of fruit and vegetables, reduction in carload minimum and many other matters.

"The season of 1912 without the Association and its losses and demoralization was pointed out as a shining example as being all that was needed to prove everything that had been said or contended for in favor of the organization, for with a splendid crop of berries and every prospect at the beginning of the season for a most successful year, both in the quality of the fruit, prices, etc., the lack of a systematic distribution, inspection of shipments at points of destination, inferior refrigeration, etc., such as the Association had been able to do better with in previous years, many of the leading markets were overstocked early in th season, which resulted in no distribution at all, low prices for the berries and vegetables and general demoralization all over the district. Not only this, but as a result of these conditions it was pointed out that all the way from 250 to 300 carloads of berries had been left to rot in the fields, yielding no one any returns or revenue whatever."

Little Girl Living Near Washington is Bitten—Will Recover.

(Special Star Telegraph.)

Washington, N. C., August 27.—Dorothy, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sam Hodges, who resides about one mile from this city, while visiting with her mother at Pamlico county was bitten by a ground rattlesnake yesterday afternoon on the ankle. The little girl was brought to this city this morning on the Washington and Vandemere train and treated by Dr. P. A. Nicholson. She is now at the home of her brother, Mr. F. M. Hodges, on Fourth street. Her physicians think that unless blood poisoning develops she will in all probability recover. Dorothy was playing with several other playmates at the time. The snake was a small one. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

STARVING CHILDREN RESCUED.

Three Little Ones Probably Abandoned by Their Mother.

New York, August 27.—Three tiny children, almost dead from starvation were found by the police early today huddled upon a pile of rugs in a deserted apartment on East 101st street. The occupants of the adjoining apartment remembered seeing the three children with their mother in the hallway three days ago.

It is believed that she abandoned them at that time and that they had remained ever since in the dark room where she had left them with nothing to eat or drink. The eldest of the three was barely four years old.

Seven years ago Everett Thompson was shot and killed at Nolan. Last night as Duncan passed along the street here he was recognized by Floyd Thompson, an uncle of the dead man, and his arrest followed. Duncan says he fired in self-defence.

the subject today with postal officials. He said there was no intent upon the part of Congress so to restrict the activities of the Postoffice Department as to inconvenience seriously the business public.

"It is absurd, he declared, "for anybody to assume that Congress meant to close postoffices as tight as a wedge on Sunday. We simply required that there should be no delivery of mail to the "general public" on Sunday in order that letter carriers and postoffice clerks might enjoy a reasonable respite from their labors. Such work as is necessary for the distribution and transmission of the mails naturally must be done, otherwise business of the country might be seriously inconvenienced."

ENGLAND IS SWAMPED.

Seven Thousand Persons Homeless as Result of Floods.

London, August 27.—That seven thousand people have been driven from their homes at Norwich by the rise of the Wensum, following, the rain which has been deluging the United Kingdom almost constantly since the beginning of the month, is the estimate tonight. The water has risen in some parts of the city to 13 feet. Police in boats provided with ldders, are constantly patroling the flooded district for rescue work. The authorities are doing their best to provide matteresses and food for the homeless people. The refugees are temporarily being taken care of in the schools.

Many animals have been drowned by the floods. The streets tonight present a weired appearance, the only lights being those of torches and andles. Fire briades are busy pumping the water from the lectric light plants and other works.

Fears or a famine of drinking water are held as the machinery in the water works is flooded and useless.

Even the precincts of the cathedral are under water. Trowse church has three feet of water in the nave and some of the gravestones have been swept away. The viaduct carrying the railway between Flordon and Forncett, a few miles outside of Norwich, has been destroyed and the railroad has been swept away for a distance of five miles from Norwich to Brindall.

Train and telegraph service still are suspended and the only communication with the outside world is by telephone.

Queen Mother Alexander and Princess Victoria, on board a royal yacht, are storm bound in Southwold bay, on the Suffolk coasts.

Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, en route to the river Tyne, is similarly weather bound an admiralty yacht at Grimsby. Many travelers are stranded in various parts of Norfolk and Suffolk and holiday makers are unable to reach their homes.

A steamer, the Herringdrifter, returning to Lowestoft, was caught in Monday's hurricane and has not been seen since. It is feared the vessel foundered with all hands.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 27.—The North Carolina Supreme Court called for argument today appeals from the First Judicial district, there being 24 to be argued, all on the civil side of the docket. It will require well nigh all the remainder of the week to dispose of the cases. In the meantime the justices are devoting all the time possible, when not on the bench, to passing on the examination papers of the 74 applicants for law license who undertook the examination Monday. Here to appear before the court in pending appeals are the following well-known Eastern Carolina lawyers: W. M. Bond, Edenton; A. P. Godwin, Yatesville; A. O. Gaylord, Plymouth; J. W. ROBBERY AT PROCTORVILLE.

White Man Jailed at Lumberton Charged With Serious Offense.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., August 27:—A white man giving the name of C. C. Campbell, aged probably 40 or 45 years, was caught in the act of robbing the store of Mr. Haynes Barns at Proctorsville, 10 miles south of here on the R. & C., this morning about 1:30 o'clock. In forcing the door he made noise enough to wake a colored man who lived nearby. The proprietor was promptly notified and he summoned a neighbor to go with him to the store. They found the man inside going through the safe which he had already opened. The cash drawer had already been attended to. He seems to be an expert safe opener without the use of explosives, using a string, one end of which is wound around the knob of the safe door and the other end stuck in his ear. He uses the string as a means of telling by sound how to unlock the safe. He was brought to town and Justice Caldwell convened a specal term of court at 5:30 to hear the case. The man waived examination and was, of course, committed. Campbell has but one eye though he carries a glass eye presumably to suit the occasion. He wanted the authorities here to wire the warden of the Mississippi penitentiary as to his identity. He is evidently a laudanum fiend as he was well supplied with the drug when arrested.

It developed this evening that Campbell is wanted in Mississippi, a reward of $50 being standing for his arrest. He will be held for the authorities from that State.

SPEAKING AT NASHVILLE

More than Two Thousand People Hear Bailey and Judge Austin

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Aug. 27.—More than 2,000 people heard ex-Judge S. F. Austin and Hon. Josiah Bailey yesterday at Nashville under the auspices of the Simmons' Central Campaign Committee. There was a barbecue and general Simmons rally. The day was decidedly all for Simmons and votes were made by the high order of the speaking, which was notably free from mud-slinging and personalities, and by those who have followed politics in Nash county, it has been declared that not since the White Supremacy campaign in 1898 has there been such a political gathering as that of yesterday. That this is the fact, no one will deny and the manifest interest is explained by the fact that there have been few things in years to cause the comment that has been brought about by the Senatorial race.

SPECIAL TO MAXTON

Arranging for Big Crowd on Account Of Veterans' Reunion

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Aug. 27.—Arrangements were completed this evening for running a special train to Maxton Thursday of this week on account of the county reunion of Confederate Veterans. The train will leave Lumberton on the arrival of the train from St. Paul and will leave Maxton returning at 5 P. M. The fare for the round trip from Lumberton is 75 cents and from intermediate points proportionate rates. A great crowd is expected to go from this section.

It is noted that the top strands of a wire fence are more apt to rust than those which pass through the dew-laden grass. A possible explanation has been offered in the fact that the wires running close to the ground are slightly electrified.

A Massachusetts woman has patented a wire gauze cover for bird cages to protect their occupants from cats and insects.

AVOID THE UNRIPE BANANA

Inasmuch as bananas are commonly eaten uncooked, it is obvious that more or less raw starch will be ingested if the fruit is not ripe, i. e., the skin has not begun to shrivel and darken. Raw starch may be singularly irritating to the alimentary tract of man and is at best poorly utilized, whether it be ingested in the form of uncooked potatoes, chestnuts, bananas or other native starchy foods. No one would advise the use of uncooked potatoes; yet many people eschew a thoroughly ripe banana in the belief that this wholesome fruit is "rotten" when the skin becomes darkened, whereas they eagerly eat the yellow-green starch-bearing fruit at a stage of incomplete ripeness. "Green" bananas, like "green" apples, are unwholesome so long as the starch has not been adequately converted into sugars in the ripening processes. But the delicious and innocuous ripe banana should not be made to suffer in its dietetic reputation because of the ignorance of the consumer. Here is a chance for popular education, says the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Experience shows that the thoroughly ripe banana (or the less ripe fruit, after cooking) is undeserving of the unfavorable reputation which it has won in certain quarters. It forms a useful addition to the dietary, richer in nutrients and far more delicious than some of its more expensive competitors.

KILLED BY BLANK CARTRIDGE

Peculiar Fatality That Accompanied Military Maneuvers Undertaken by French Troops.

A strange and sad accident occurred in the course of drill manauvers at Montreuil-sous-Bois, in the suburbs of Paris, France, where a soldier was killed by a blank cartridge discharged at him by a fellow-soldier. A company of the Thirty-first regiment was taken out to Montreuil for maneuvers. At three o'clock in the afternoon the lieutenant in command decided to order a sham attack on a fort, which his soldiers were to storm. Some of the soldiers were posted as sentries, and the others were told that in storming the imaginary fort they were to try specially to take the sentries prisoners, but a formal order was given to the soldiers that they were not to load their rifles. In spite of this a shot was suddenly heard, and a soldier fell with a groan. He was a young recruit called Laurent, and near him stood another soldier who had acted as sentry and was completely dumfounded by what had happened. Either he did not know that there was a cartridge in the weapon or he fired thinking that it was only part of the sham fighting. Laurent was taken to the hospital at Begin, and soon afterwards expired. He had been killed by the packing of the blank cartridge, which, being fired within only a yard or two of him, acted like a bullet. The unfortunate soldier was the eldest son of a widow, who has three smaller children to bring up.

Queer Uniforms.

From a story related by an Ohio business man it appears that in certain ways China is becoming Americanized.

This gentleman, who recently made a tour of China, was in Canton when that city passed under the control of the revolutionary forces. Observing several companies of those troops as they marched past his hotel, the traveler noticed that they wore an unusual uniform. Curious to inspect it at closer range, he advanced to the curb, only to discover that the uniform consisted simply of a union suit of American underwear. He was informed afterward that the soldiers were delighted with the outfit.

Such a uniform for troops in active service may be unconventional and all that and yet have distinct advantages. In action, or on the march, it might be found superior to more formal dress.

His One Item of Waste.

Senator Dixon, of Montana, says that he saved a soldier a walk to Fort Myer the other night, and, incidentally, learned a new lesson in economy. "Very evidently the soldier had been celebrating pay day, for he was good-naturedly intoxicated as well as 'broke.' Not having his fare when the conductor called for it, I granted his request for the accommodating nickel. Then I asked him what he had done with his $16.50. He answered frankly enough: 'Ten dollars went for a champagne supper with the boys—and I bought drinks with five.' I asked him what he had done with the other $1.50. After a moment's thought he hesitatingly answered: 'Well, I guess I just spent it foolishly.'"

Dying Race.

According to the annual report of the Aborigines' Protection board, which has been laid on the table of the legislative assembly, the number of aborigines in New South Wales at the last census, on September 1, 1910, was 1,872 full bloods (831 males, 538 females, and 503 children), and 5,085 half castes (1,203 males, 1,046 females, and 2,836 children), making a total of 6,957, which represented a decrease compared with the previous year of 251 full bloods and 162 half-casts.—Dundee Advertiser.

WHERE HEALTH WORK FAILS.

Health Officers Should Open Free Tuberculosis Dispensaries.

What is a health officer? Is he a doctor employed to go about fumigating and tacking up yellow posters, announcing measles, scarlet fever and whoopingcough here, there and yonder? Any dollar-and-a-half-aday man can do that. Perhaps he visits the jails, county homes, and a few indigent sick. But is that "health work"? No. That is the work of a county physician and not of a health officer. If a community confines a man in jail, it should give him medical attention as well as food and clothing. Medical practice in county homes, etc., is charity work of a curative nature rather than health work.

What, then, is the duty of a health officer? A health officer is one employed to reduce death rate. But what deaths can be reduce? Preventable deaths, of course. Preventable deaths contitute 40 per cent of all deaths occurring in the State. Preventable deaths occur chiefly from consumption, typhoid fever, diptheria scarlet fever, measles whoopingcough smallpox, and diarrheal diseases of infants. Of this formidable array, consumption leads the list. It kills twice as many peope as typhoid fever, whoopingcough, measles, scarlet fever diphtheria and smallpox combined. This disease is both preventable and curable. We lose in this county about 2.5 per thousand population every year from consumption. The average death rate from this diease in the registration area of the United States is only 1.6 per thousand population. With moderately efficient health work on this disease its fatality has been reduced to less than half.

Our present health organization could certainly reduce our death rate from 2.5 ot at least 1.5 per thousand by inaugurating free tuberculosis dispensary systems. When we demand that our city health officers and county superintendents of health open up free dispensaries for consumption for say from three to six hours a week, and when we convert our quarantine officers into visiting nurses as well, it wil cost perhaps $500,00 to $1,000.00 a year more than at present, but we will then be on the highway to real health work which will mean the reduction of death rates, and this is the end, the result we seek.

VETERANS AT MAXTON

(Lumberton Robesonian).

Preparations are being made to make Thursday of this week a big day in Maxton. That is the place and Thursday is the time for the assembling of the Confederate veterans of Robeson in their annual county reunion. They had a great day in Lumberton last year and Lumberton was mighty glad to have them and wanted them again, but Maxton put in a bid and Lumberton had to yield for this time. Among the speakers will be Major F. C. Robbins and Attorney General Bickett, so it will be a notable day from that standpoint, too.

DOCTORS ENDORSE

Newbro's Herpicide

When a doctor endorses a preparation it means more than an ordinary testimonial. His opinion is always that of the professional man devoted to the welfare of the people.

Dr. J. J. Boyd, Covington, Tenn. says: "I feel it my duty to write this for the benefit of those suffering from dandruff. In the average case a few applications of Newbro's Herpicide will remove all dandruff. It is advisable to continue its use for several weeks."

The words of J. B. Thompson, M D., No. 2 Burrough Place, Cor. Hollis St., Boston, Mass., are not less enthusiastic: "I can only speak in praise of Newbro's Herpicide. It is all that is claimed and perhaps more. Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp but brightens the hair, gives it life and makes it soft."

Dr. T. A. Moore, Duncan, Ariz. writes of his experience: "My scalp was in places covered by patches of dry, scaly material and the itching was incessant. Since using Herpicide these evils have disappeared and my hair is soft, smooth and growing. Has grown on spots before but thin covered."

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy to kill the dandruff germ and stop falling hair. The terrible itching which goes with dandruff is allayed almost at once.

Herpicide is for sale at Drug Stores and one dollar size bottles are guaranteed. Applications may be obtained at the leading barber shops. Be sure you get genuine Herpicide. Send 10c in postage for sample and book to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich.

DON'T NEGLECT CATARRH

Even in its early stages Catarrh is a most distressing complaint, known by its symptoms of stuffy feeling in the head and nose, roaring in the ears, mucus in the throat, difficult breathing, etc. When the blood becomes thoroughly polluted with catarrhal matter the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness and often an aggravating cough, the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased. Catarrh is a deep-seated blood disease and must be treated constitutionally; it is beyond the reach of local treatment. Only temporary relief can ever be had from the use of sprays, washes, etc. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. It goes down into the circulation and removes all impurities. Then as pure, nourishing blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes heal, all discharges cease and every symptom of Catarrh passes away. Don't neglect Catarrh; cure it with S. S. S. as thousands have done. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

Wednesday, August 28, 1912.

A European must be convinced that we are a Nation of falsifiers of the truth.

There is not a word of truth in what a man says when he has to depend on making an explanation to keep from getting caught.

A Wilmington woman is sure her husband is becoming a Progressive because he acts queer and can't explain what he thinks he means.

No doubt President Taft is glad Congress is off his hands. He can now play golf and keep quiet so his words cannot be quoted against him.

What can Dr. Doolittle do as successor to Dr. Wiley in the United States pure food movement? Can the fake food manipulators do Dr. Doolittle?

By common consent a man's straw hat goes out of commission on September 15th. By that time few are fit to wear and it is too late to buy another.

A couple of weeks ago Chairman Hilles claimed that Taft would clean up Roosevelt and easily beat Wilson. He got the laugh and utterly failed to receive an encore.

Every man has a right to run for an office, but they have no right to expect to be elected. Some are candidates now so their chances will be better next time.

What has become of the old fashioned lawyer who got elected to the legislature and accepted retainer fees under the impression that he wasn't being "greased."?

All the people who are denounced by the Third Termer as crooks are Republicans. The curious thing about it is how those crooks failed to be exposed till this campaign.

A Taft organ says: "All the ignoramuses of the country are for Roosevelt." That is hard on the Republican party, for they used to constitute more than half of that party.

Governor Marshall likes a chew of tobacco and it is mighty hard to beat a man who does not hesitate to make friends with a stranger who is suspected of having a good brand.

Ir Barnun, the showman, were alive during this campaign he would have a fine opportdnity to ascertain the number of Americans who are foolish enough to get fooled after they have been told that it is loaded.

When Congress adjourned Senator LaFollette was was standing right up asking questions and demanding an investigation of the truth He would have received prompt attention if he had asked for an investigation of something utterly absurd.

Many men who appear to be particularly brilliant are picturesquely crazy. They fool lots of people and it requires experts and courts to find out where the screw is loose. Even the courts have a hard time deciding when some subjects are nutty.

It would seem that if it had to fall to the lot of any of the several Presidential candidates to lead the goodly host at Armageddon, Dr. Chafin, the Prohibitionist, might have expected to take the lead. It is presumed that Dr Chafin practices what he preaches.

We can understand why there should arise a question of evracity between men now and then but to save our lives we are puzzled to understand how one man can expect his word to be taken against the field. When everybody's account differs from that of one man it is more than likely that the majority has it.

GUILTY KNOWLEDGE

The Baltimore Evening Sun is disposed to believe that "to accept unqualifiedly the word of Penrose and Archbold as to Roosevelt's knowledge and acceptance of a standard Oil contribution, in the face of the Colonel's explicit denial, is absurd."

Of course, Senator Penrose, who managed the Roosevelt campaign in Fennsylvania, and Mr. Archbold, who is the financial head of the Standard Oil Company, only testified as to their belief that the colonel knew about it, and especially in the case of Mr. bold who paid over the money, he only testified that he was told by the Roosevelt managers that the Colonel knew about it and appreciated it. Neither testified of his own knowledge that Roosevelt knew that the Standard Oil Company contributed $125,000 to his slush fund. Their statements are only heresay evidence, and a denial from Colonel Roosevelt, therefore, will have to be accepted against a dozen heresay statements. Under the rules of evidence the heresay statements of Penrose and Archbold would be ruled out, but most everybody in the country had heard about the transaction whether the Colonel knew about it or not. We fancy that he really did not care to know of his own knowledge that the Standard Oil Company came across handsomely, but no doubt he would have been surprised and disappointed if the Standard Oil people had been so indifferent that they would not subscribe a cent.

Colonel Roosevelt may be free of the guilty knowledge that the Standard Oil Company contributed $125,000 to help elect him, but the main fact is that it was proven by Mr. Archbold, the company's treasurer, that the contribution was made and used in his behalf. His statement is also corroborated that the money went into the Republican campaign fund and was used to carry a Presidential election. How such a big secret was kept from Colonel Roosevelt is a mystery.

Colonel Roosevelt says he told his managers not to receive any contribution from the Standard Oil Company, but it is no compliment to him that they reached out for the money and used it. It was evident that they did not regard the Colonel as being altogether sincere about the matter. The main points about the whole matter, however, is that the corporations knew whom they wanted to be elected, and that the Standard Oil Company actually contributed enough money to have erected a cotton factory in North Carolina and enough to build a railroad ten miles long in a level country like eastern North Carolina. It is also significant that the Colonel did not know about the corporation subscriptions in his behalf and yet he did not want the public to know about it, because he opposed publicity before the election as demanded by the Democrats. He favored publicity afterwards, but even up to now the country is still hearing facts that ought have been made public soon after election.

Colonel Roosevelt called Judge Parker a falsifier when that gentleman declared that the insurance companies were furnishing money to elect Roosevelt. The Colonel could have found out the truth about it simply by inquiring of his campaign committee before giving the lie to Judge Parker, but for campaign purposes he neglected to do so. He left it to a legislative investigation afterwards to verify every word Judge Parker had said.

There is really too much insincerity about campaign publicity, and it is quite as apparent in this campaign as it was in 1904. However, the Colonel now declares that he is heartily in favor of campaign publicity, and if he is now sincere he can give some interesting publicity concerning the financiering of his recent primary campaign. Senator LaFollette is anxious about it, and even in the last hours of Congress on Monday last, the Wisconsin Senator was so persistent that he had adopted a resolution calling for an investigation of the 1912 primary election expenditures. That investigation will include the expenditures of all candidates, but LaFollette is especially after Roosevelt. One would think that if the Colonel is not afraid to do so, he would voluntarily state whether his primary campaign cost $3,000,000 or $1,000. He might state where it came from and give the country the facts before the election. The Republicans and Democrats ought also be willing to make a show down.

The country demands reform in this particular at the hands of all parties and all men. The people do not want their elections to be controlled by money.

THE FARMERS AND THE MARKETS.

Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, succeeded in getting through the Senate a bill to establish a "division of markets" in the United States Department of Agriculture. The object of the new division is to gather and disseminate information as to systems of marketing farm products both in the United States and foreign countries. One of its purposes will be to inevestigate the demand for farm products in various trade centres and to ascertain the current movement of such products. When this information shall have been secured specific data concerning supply and demand and prices is to be ascertained and the information disseminated among farmers through daily bulletins. The following is the Georgia Senator's bill:

"It shall be the duty of the chief of the bureau of statistics to collect through the said division of markets, by any expeditions method, as by telegraph, telephone, mail or otherwise, compile and report to farmers, farmers' organizations and societies of consumers daily bulletins or telegraphic reports of such information and statistics as will enable them to adopt plans of marketing that may facilitate the handling of farm products at a minimum cost; provided that when such reports or statistics are requested to be furnished by telegraph or telephone, or by methods other than the United States mail, the person or associaton making such request shall advance the fee for the cost of transmission, which shall be deposited to the appropriation for the maintenance of said division of markets."

The Government now does in part what Senator Smith's bill would have it do in a general way. The Government keeps closer tab on cotton and wheat than any other product, but most of the information is for the speculators and buyers. We take it that under the new division, the government would keep up with strawberry, peach and truck production in the South as elsewhere, and the information would not only be available for producers but for consumers as well. It would notify consumers in the various cities about fruit and truck shipments being sent forward, and the probability is that prices would largely depend upon the government reports. High prices would be based upon light shipments and low prices when shipments happen to be large.

Such a system appears to us to be cumbersome, and there is the bare possibility that our peach and strawberry exchanges engaged in distributing inter-state shipments would sooner or later come under Federal supervision. However, the Atlanta Journal says "Senator Smith's bill is a practical stride toward establishing and maintaining an adequate system of agriculture." One thing is sure. Such a system would entail an immense expense and call for a most elaborate amount of detail if it carried out in the forty-eight States of the Union.

OUR DUTY TO WILSON

The Star a few days ago announced that it would receive and forward subscriptions to the campaign fund of the National Democratic committee in charge of the campaign in behalf of the election of Woodrow Wilson as President. We wish to urge that it is the duty of the people to finance his campaign, and as money is necessarily needed it should be forthcoming at once. Now is the time it is most needed, for the campaign practically will be over in 90 days.

Let us be prompt in responding to the call for funds, and it should be remembered that subscriptions may be small or large as the people are able to contribute. It must be the people who shall furnish the money, since no large interests are the least bit concerned in the election of a Democratic President. The interests of the trusts are in the other direction and they will pour out their wealth to elect a President and Congress which will continue the partnership heretofore existing between them and the party of privilege. Wilson is making a fight to restore the government to the people and certainly special interests cannot be depended upon to take even a languid interest in his success.

"If such a thing were practicable," says the Meridian, Miss., Dispatch, "it would be better for the Democratic party if the present campaign could be conducted without the expenditure of a dollar. But this is impossible. It will be necessary for the National committee to spend a good many hundreds of thousands of dollars and it is likely that at least a million dollars can be spent in perfectly proper ways."

It is necessary to reach the voters in 48 States right away, and the campaign of education will require an immense sum for printing, speakers and legitimate expenses. Not a dollar will be spent otherwise than for legitimate purposes, including the expense connected with the sending of literature telegrams and telephone messages, stamps and other kindred necessaries.

North Carolinians owe a duty to Wilson and "now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

Our esteemed and bright evening contemporary, the Newbern Sun, is a progressive newspaper but in no particular Progressive in the Bull Moose sense. It is a splendid Democratic paper, and is making good in a field which it serves in a manner that must be appreciated. The paper is constantly improving in appearance and attractiveness, its live manage-ment never neglects the opportunity to add new features or to make old ones all the better. With new paper making equipment, The Sun now appears in new garb and has a new head that neatly sets off a first page of attractive news matter displayed in a decidedly catchy manner. Editor Owen G. Dunn and the Newbern Publishing Company have the Star's hearty congratulations upon the manner in which they are making the Sun shine.

The newspapers and correspondents compliment all the speeches of North Carolina's candidates for the United States Senate. Wherever one speaks it is said he makes supporters. This shows that all three candidates are good speakers, and that public speaking continues to have its effect.

The Democrats of the Third Tennesessee district have again nominated John A. Moon for Congress. The Tennecseeans doubtless know Judge Moon best, but he is also known far away from his home State, for he is one of the South's real statesmen. An able man opposed him for renomination, but it is nothing against him that his fellow Democrats returned Senator Moon to the House. He has ably served Tennessee, and so long as his serivce was unxceptionable there was no need to replace all experienced statesman for one who had experience to get.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We are next due an eager inquiry as to just what measures finally got enacted into law and what did not. Also as to just what form those that did get through finally assumed.—Charlotte Observer.

We do not remember that in the campaign of four years ago that friends of Mr. Kitchin said any worse things about Mr. Craig than the friends of Mr. Craig said about Mr. Kitchin, and yet Mr. Craig voted for Mr. Kitchin then and Mr. Kitchin will vote for Mr. Craig now.—Durham Herald.

Those people who have felt and acted bearishly about the cotton crop because of favorable reports would de well to remember that it is not far from three weeks behind schedule and that even an average frost date might work great harm. A killing frost near the end of October would hit a crop having a maturity proper only to October's first week.—Charlotte Observer.

The passage of the postoffice appropriation bill by both houses of Congress and its signing up by the President with an undiscovered "joker" in it, shows how easily important measures in Congress can be juggled with just previous to being voted on. It is by no means the first instance of the kind. Prohibition and labor jokers have come to light in previous acts of legislation and after mild surprise at their discovery were allowed to pass. This will not be the case with the joker closing the postoffices of the country on Sunday. It is retrograde movement that would result in much injury to the business world and one which this country could not put up with. As it stands, it will be the law of the land until Congress meets in December, but meanwhile some way around it will be doubtless found.—Charlotte Observer.

DRINK PLENTY OF WATER.

Improvement in Digestion, Temper And Appearance Result.

(From the Youth's Companion.)

A well-known nerve specialist has said that "all neurasthenics (that is, people with unhealthy nerves) have desiccated nerves and suffer from an insufficiency of fluid in the tissues of the body." It is probably that we all, in more or less degree, even when not conscious of any definite symptoms, are suffering in some part of our system for the lack of enough fluid, and especially of enough pure, cold water.

We know that so nicely is the human body adjusted and adapted to its uses that one part cannot suffer without all suffering. If the nerves are desiccated, or dried through lack of fluid, then it is certain the same lack, and that the wheels of the wonderful machinery are being clogged by reason of waste matter which is not washed away.

We see by this that water does for us a three-fold service. It feeds, it washes and it carries away the cinders of the body furnace; and through the want of it we are exposed to many and great dangers. The tissues become too dry, the blood is thick and it flows sluggish, and the retained waste of the body sets up a condition which the doctors call "autointoxication," or self-poisining.

This condition may give rise to almost any known symptoms, from a pimple to heart failure, and is really responsible for most of the semi-invalids with whom the world is largely peopled.

To obtain the best results from water drinking certain rules should be observed. People do not all need the same amount, and it may take a little experimenting to find out just how much should be taken in indivlual cases. It has been stated by physicians that five or six pints should be taken during the 24 hours. Of this only a moderate quantity should be taken with the meals. It is a mistake to take no water with a meal, but it is perhaps a greater mistake to wash food down with water, especially with ice-water.

The best time for water drinking is at night and early in the morning. It is well to form the habit of slowly sipping, during the bath and while dressing, two or three glasses of cool—not ice-cold—water. Two or three more may be sipped at bed time, and again two or three glasses an hour or two before luncheon and before dinner.

In a very short time the value of this habit will become apparent in the resultant general improvement in digestion, temper and appearance.

Don't add ice cold water to a red hot stomach. Water should be cold enough to be palatable, that is, to taste good, but never ice cold. Also, don't gulp it down; drink slowly. This is important, esptcially if the water is cold and you are both hot and thirsty. But don't forget to cultivate the habit and drink plenty of water every day.

ELECTRICITY FOR EVERY HOME.

(Special Dispatch to Baltimore Sun.)

New York, Aug. 25.—Thomas A. Edison sees no reason why an isolated country home should not be as completely equipped with electrical contrivances as a Manhattan apartment. To prove his point he has leased a house near his home in Llewellyn Park and has installed a generating plant, with all the devices for lighting, heating and cooking designed to ease the burden of the housekeeper.

Electric heaters and irons, motors to run the washing machine and glowing bulbs in every room receive their current from a battery stored by a gasoline engine generator.

The inventor does not pretend to generate electricity more cheaply in such small units than can a public utility company, but he does insist that he has assembled a plant that would provide the current for an isolated house at a reasonable cost.

The model house is in charge of Mr. Edison's son Charles, and his nephew, Charles A. Poyer.

ARE YOU TWENTY-ONE?

In a recent hotly contested election in Indiana, over a local reform movement, the opposition resorted to every possible means to defeat the measure. When the men who had just reached their majority came to the polls their right to vote was challenged. Some were able to procure copies of their birth certificates, others were not. The reform movement was lost by just half the votes represented by those, who having been born in States without birth registration laws, could not prove immediately their right to vote. In the last analysis the lack of birth registration laws caused the reform party to loss the election, as all the protested votes would have been cast on that side.

How will the young men in this State prove their right to vote this fall? There is no state law requiring the registration of births in North Carolina.

POSTMASTER WALLACE BACK

Returned Yesterday Morning From Washington—Nothing to Say As to Report That Clerks Oppose Him

Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace returned yesterday morning from Washington, D. C., where he has been for the past week or ten days looking after his re-appointment to the position for the next four years, and which, as was mentioned in yesterday's Star, was held up by Congress, after Mr. Wallace had been renominated by President Taft.

Asked by a Star representative as to the report that a number of the clerks in the local office had employed counsel to oppose his re-appointment, and would prefer charges against him, as was stated in The Star yesterday, Mr. Wallace declared that he had not given the matter any consideration whatever, and that he deemed it too unimportant to make any statement in regard to it. He said that he first saw the report on purchasing a Star yesterday when nearing this city, and that it came as a mild surprise to him.

"However," he said, "I have made no inquiry and I haven't had a word to say about it."

Mr. Wallace was asked as to when the convention of the State Postmasters' Association would be held, this city and Wrightsville Beach having been selected for the meeting place at the convention held in Asheville last Fall. He said that there had been no date set for the meeting, and that it would be impossible to say as to when the convention would be held. He said, however, he would probably meet a number of the postmasters of the State at the State Convention of the Republican party, which is to be held in Charlotte September 4th, and that some date might be selected at that time.

He stated that the National Postmasters' Convention is to be held at Atlantic City September 5th, 6th and 7th, and that he might go on to Atlantic City from Charlotte and attend that convention. He has been selected to lead the discussion on the subject, "The Postmaster and the Inspector," at the National Convention.

In reply to a question as to how Congress managed to pass the postoffice appropriation bill with a clause attached which prohibits the delivery of all mail, except that bearing a special delivery stamp, on Sundays, Mr. Wallace laughingly replied that if so astute news agency as the Associated Press did not learn of the significance of the bill until a day after it had been signed by the President and become a law, he could hardly be expected to know much about it himself, especially as he was occupied with matters of much more importance to himself.

However, he said that the law, while probably intended to help the employes of the postal service, would work as much hardship on them as when the Sunday delivery of mail was permissible. It would be necessary in the local office, he declared, to put the whole staff of employes to work at a very early hour on Monday mornings, probably earlier than 3 o'clock, in order to "work" the accumulated mail coming in over Sunday. This would mean that the whole staff would have to work three or four extra hours each week, on Monday, where as heretofore half of the staff has worked about three hours on every other Sunday, the men alternating so as to work one Sunday and be off the next.

KEPT FINE ORDER

Wilmington Policemen on Election Duty In South Carolina

Returns from the South Carolina election yesterday were awaited with the keenest interest by many Wilmington people, many of them natives of South Carolina, last night and The Star was besieged with telephone inquiries for information. Bulletins of the election were posted frequently in front of the office and were eagerly scanned until a late hour.

Further local interest was given the, election from the fact that four of Wilmington's "finest," Officers Marcus Gray, T. M. Hall, Leon George and J. S. Lane, were dispatched to Mullins, S. C., the day before the election to see that order was kept around the polls. Being clothed with the proper authority they remained on guard all day and while there were several affrays in connection with the election, the order was in the main good. The Wilmington officers yesterday morning were waited upon at their hotel by two prominent Blease leaders and ordered to leave town, but they stuck to their posts and returned to the city on the train from the South early this morning. It was a rare experience for the Wilmington officers, but a telephone message from Mullins last night stated that they acquitted themselves manfully and contributed largely to the good order of the day at Mullins.

The Recorder's Court

Times in the Recorder's court just now are dull, and yesterday's session was no exception to the rule. The most interesting cases were against Joe Furst and Joe Holland, two white men charged with cruelty to animals. They were found guilty of having hired a horse and driven it almost to the point of exhaustion. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed on each. Fred Southerland, a white man, was fined $10 and costs for slapping Elsie Howard, colored. Della Johnson, colored, was found not guilty of vagrancy. B. McMillan, colored, was assessed $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

Governor Foss, of Massachusetts, recently appointed to his executive council an assistant medical examiner who had been dead three years. We have heard of voting 'em, but never to give them office.

REGULAR MEETING TODAY

Council to Have Further Discussion on Street Improvement Matter—Question of Fumigation of City Schools

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock. Like all recent regular sessions of Council this meeting promises to be of interest, as the matter of street improvements is again to be considered. The contract for improving Chesnut street, between Front and Second, comes up for the second and final reading, after which the contractors, the Southern Paving & Construction Co., will begin the work.

Councilman B. C. Moore and Mr. R. A. Parsley have asked Council not to do any further permanent street work until a detailed statement has been prepared and given out by the street department showing the amount expended and unexpended of the street bond issue fund. At the last regular meeting Councilman B. C. Moore had a resolution passed authorizing the improvement of Hanover street, from Nutt to Fourth. Mr. Parsley has been quoted as saying that he desires to see all street work, including the Hanover street improvement, held up until the statement in question is forthcoming. It is not improbable that the matter will be brought up for discussion this morning.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, will bring to the attention of Council the matter of having a thorough fumigation of the public schools of the city before the opening in October. Dr. Nesbitt and Dr. W. D. MacMillan, county superintendent of health, discussed the question of whose duty it is to have the city school rooms fumigated, and yesterday morning the former brought the question to the attention of Mayor Smith. After reading the law, Mayor Smith suggestion that Dr. Nesbitt bring the matter before Council this morning. Mayor Smith expressed the opinion that it is the duty, under the law, of the county superintendent of health to have the schools fumigated. The law provides that where a city employs a superintendent of health for all his time that the fumigation of the school rooms be done under his direction, but where he is employed for only a portion of his time the work is to be in charge of the county superintendent. The point is made that the city does not require of Dr. Nesbitt all of his time for official duties, whereas the county superintendent gives all his time to his office.

Dr. Nesbitt said that his reason for bringing up the matter is in order that the schools be thoroughly and properly fumigated before the next school year begins, regardless of whether it is done by the city or county. He said that he had no doubt but that communicable diseases, such as scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, etc., among the school children, will be greatly reduced if the school rooms are well fumigated. The school rooms, he said, should be fumigated before the opening of each session. He said that if Council decides that the work should be done under the direction of his department that he will detail two of his men, at stated intervals, to have the work in charge.

Y. M. C. A. TO CLOSE

Keys of Old Building to Be Turned Over to New Owners

Secretary J. B. Huntington, of the Y. M. C. A., and his assistants, as well as the young men who have occupied the dormitories in the association building, are busy now preparing to move out, as the building will be closed and the keys turned over Saturday to those who purchased the structure last Spring.

Temporary offices of the association will be located in the Odd Fellows' building at Third and Princess streets until the handsome new building to be erected on Market street, just east of the Colonial Hotel, is completed. As for those who have made their homes in the Y. M. C. A., they will look elsewhere for rooms until the new building is ready for occupancy.

Part of the furniture in the old building will be sold, while some will be stored away for use in the new building. The office furniture will be moved to the Odd Fellows' building, where only the business features of the association will be looked after for the next 10 months or a year. Bids for the new structure are to be opened September 17th, and it is likely that the contract will be let at that time. The building will then be started as early as possible and it is hoped to have the new structure ready for occupancy in less than a year from the date of the closing of the old building.

REPORTS ARE RECEIVED.

Recommendations As to Elimination of Fire Hazards Here.

Mayor Jos. D. Smith and Building Inspector Chas. Schnibben have received from Mr. A. L. DeRosset, of Charlotte, copies of the report made by the inspectors who visited this city for the North Carolina Fire Prevention Association, making inspections July 10th and 11th. The report sets forth that most of the fire-hazards here are of he class that can be easily remedied under the city ordinances and at slight expence to property owners. Most of the risks are reported to be from piles of rubbish, trash, etc.

Building Inspector Schnibben stated last night that the recommendations in the report would be heeded and that he would act with them in mind on his inspection of buildings hereafter.

ANOTHER ADDITION TO ORTON

Work to Begin Immediately Upon 25-Room Annex to Popular Front Strett Hostelry—Follows Recent Improvements.

Plans have been completed and work will begin immediately upon the adition of another 25-room annex to The Orton Hotel, the well-known Front street hostelry, and when completed the improvements will give The Orton a capacity of nearly 250 rooms and place it on par with all the largest and best hotels in the State.

It will be remembered that The Orton was enlarged only a short time ago by the addition of a fifth story, increasing the capacity 30 or more rooms. These improvements have only been completed a few months and the announcement of Mr. Jos. H. Hinton, the properietor, yesterday that still another annex will be added, is in indication of the ever increasing transient business in this city, as well as Mr. Hinton's commendable determination to give Wilmington a hotel worthy of her needs.

Mr. Jos. F. Leitner, the architect, prepared the plans for the annex and Rhodes & Underwood, of Newbern, have the contract for the work. The necessary materials have already been ordered and it is planned to start the work immediately, so as to have the addition completed within a few months.

The plans call for an addition at the rear of hotel, which will bring the back stories on a level with the five story front. This annex will extend entirely across the building, from the north to the south, and will contain 25 large and airy rooms, all of which will be equipped with private baths, local and long distance telephone connections, steam heat, hot and cold water, and all other modern facilities and conveniences.

Building Permits Issued

Building permits issued recently are as follows: T. E. Love, two-story, slate roof residence, on Second street, between Ann and Nun, to cost $5,000; W. D. MacMillan, addition to brick garage, on Second street, between Princess and Chesnut, to cost $2,000; F. T. Mills, frame livery and sale stable on Dock, between 16th and 17th, to cost $2,000; J. J. Darby, stable and storeroom in block bounded by Front and Surry and Church and Castle streets to cost $600.

CHAMPION RIFLEMAN

Corporal Cedric M. Long Wins the President's Match

Sea Girt, N. J., August 27.—Corporal Cedric M. Long, of the Fifth Regiment of Massachusetts, is the champion military rifleman of the United States. He attained tuis honor today at the annual rifle tournament here after two days of shooting, during which he surpassed the efforts of more than 100 other competitors, including all the crack shots in the military service of the United States, regulars and National Guard. He scored 235 points, against 231 for his nearest rival.

Corporal Long, in addition to the title won a gold medal and a cash prize, and will receive an autograph letter of congratulation from President Taft for winning the match—the President's match.

The second prize, consisting of a silver medal and cash, was won by Sergeant C. M. King, 43rd Iowa, while the third prize, a bronze medal and cash, goes to Corporal C. M. McLeod, U. S. Marine Corps, who scored 225 points.

For the military championship of the United States, the President's match was shot in two stages. The first consisted of one skirmish run of 20 shots; 10 shots at 200 yards; surprise fire, and 10 shots at 600 yards slow fire. Only the 100 competitors having the highest aggregate scores at the finish of the first stage shot in the second stage. The latter called for 10 shots at 100 yards slow fire.

The match opened Monday morning and was not concluded until this evening.

GEORGIA CONVENTION TODAY

Will Ratify Nominations of Primary —Same Contests Scheduled

Macon, Ga., August 27.—More than 500 delegates have arrived tonight for the Democratic State convention tomorrow which will ratify the nomination of John M. Slaton for Governor and other State House candidates in the primary of August 21st.

The convention will be enlivened by three contests, two involving the candidacies of State House officers and the third that of the judgeship of the Blue Ridge judicial circuit.

In the Court of Appeals' race between Judge J. R. Pottle, the incumbent, and Nash R. Broyles, recorder of Atlanta, there is a tie on the face of the returns, each man having 184 votes in the convention.

Three men ran for Commissioner of Agriculture, none receiving sufficient delegates to nominate. The contestants are J. J. Connor, with 148 convention votes, J. D. Price, with 148 and A. O. Blalock, with 92.

Judge N. A. Morris, in the Blue Ridge district, was opposed by H. L. Patterson. Patterson claims there was fraud practiced in the vote of one county and he will ask that the vote in Gilmer be thrown out which will give him the place.

W. J. Harriss, of Cedartown, is to be permanent chairman of the convention, and W. S. West, of Valdosta, temporary chairman. A. H. Ulm, campaign manager for Slaton, is slated as secretary of the State committee.

EMPLOYES LOYAL TO WALLACE

Clerks and Carriers In Wilmington Postoffice Surprised at Statement Majority of Them Opposed to Chief

A large majority of the clerks and carriers in the Wilmington postoffice were surprised, many of them indignant, at the statement in yesterday morning's paper from Attorney Jos. W. Little, of the Wilmington bar, that he represented a majority of the 18 carriers—"12 to be exact"—and that they would file charges against their chief, Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace, in his efforts for confirmation before the Senate of the United States, following his reappointment by President Taft on last Saturday.

While the carriers were not involved in the statement attributed to Mr. Little, report gained currency on the streets yesterday that they, too, were interested in the fight and they readily joined the clerks in a statement to the public disclaiming any connection whatever with the reported movement. Twelve out of 18 of the clerks readily signed the statement and the six others approached declined to sign on the ground that they had nothing whatever to do with the former reported activity and do not propose to enter into the controversy. The carriers, 16 in number, appended their signatures to the statement, it being understood that of these there are 17 all told. The statement in full, the original of which is in possession of The Star, is as follows:

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 27, 1912.

"Mr. Editor:—We the undersigned clerks and carriers of the Wilmington postoffice, notice in your issue of The Morning Star of Tuesday, August 27th, 1912, a statement to the effect that a majority of the clerks in the Wilmington postoffice, '12 to be more exact,' together with a number of local business men had employed Mr. Jos. W. Little, of this city, to telegraph to Senator Lee S. Overman to hold up the nomination of the Postmaster, Mr. Thos. E. Wallace.

"This statement comes as a surprise to the clerks and carriers of the Wilmington Postoffice, for the reason that we, the undersigned, have never participated in any wise in opposing the appointment of the present postmaster, nor have we employed counsel to represent us, nor have we in any way whatever thrown any obstacle in Mr. Wallace's way for reappointment, and the statement in the paper is a reflection upon the clerks and carriers of the Wilmington Postoffice.

"Anyone who is familiar with the postal laws of the United States government understands fully that the clerks and carriers are under the Civil Service law and hold their positions under the same, and, therefore, take no interest in political appointments, and if they have grievances to make they make them personally either to the inspectors or the heads of the departments, and an examination of the postal law will show that this is a requirement. The object and purpose of this, as anyone can plainly see, is for the purpose of taking out of the postoffice, politics, which ought never to be injected into it, and if anyone of the undersigned desires to prefer charges against the present postmaster, he would certainly have the manliness to take it up through the proper channels or department without the assistance of counsel, and the statement that we have participated in any such action or conduct is a reflection upon the employes of this office.

"We hope you will give this card as prominent space in your paper as the article heretofore referred to.

Following the regular meeting last night Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, gave a light luncheon with cigars and the occasion proved one of much pleasure to all in attendance. The affair was arranged in honor of the birthday anniversaries of State Deputy Grand Chancellor J. D. Nutt and Dr. W. C. Galloway. In addition to members of Clarendon Lodge there were a number of Pythians present from other lodges in the city. A number of interesting short talks were made.

It is now the time of year that the girl with a No. 4 foot, wearing a No. 2 size shoe, tells how she cut her foot on a horrid oyster shell while bathing.

Deputies Davis and Reynolds yesterday afternoon arrested a party of young negro boys and men on warrants charging them with disorderly conduct on a public highway, it being alleged that the negroes created quite a disturbance on the East Wilmington road last Friday night by yelling, firing pistols, fighting, etc. The warrants were issued by Justice Harriss and those arrested were as follows: Archie Bradley, Richard Hunter, Elijah Kelly, Sam Kelly, Oscar Berry, Willie Berry, Charlie Mosley and Robert Spicer. The negroes were required to give $10 cash bonds for their appearance before Justice Harriss today at noon.

THE OPENING OF "IDLEWILD"

New Suburban Development by Wilder & Metts—Opens This Morning—An Ideal Location—Sale Starts 9 A. M.

Beginning this morning, Messrs Wiler & Metts, the live real estate Agents, are offering for sale, a number of attractive lots, suitable for home sites, at the new delightfully located suburb "Idlewild." This tract of land was selected with a view to securing a most ideal situation where the beauty of the country life may be combined with the comforts and conveniences of the city. Fast schedules from Audubon Station (which is just two blocks from "Idlewild") to the city, does away with the feeling of isolation which generally pervades the suburbs. Messrs Wilder & Metts have spared no pains in making "Idlewild" one of the most substantial developments that have been placed upon the market in recent years. For the past three or four weeks a large force of laborers have been busily engaged in transforming a "Pine forest" into what will soon be a "Little City."

At the entrance to "Idlewild" stand large, well designed brick and stone pillars which mark the approach to the long wide Boulevard extending the length of the property. Messrs Wilder & Mets state tha hey have given this project considerable care and attention and feel that they are presenting to the public a piece of property that will appeal to both home builder and investor. To the man of limited means who longs for that little house which he can call home, this proposition should command consideration. It is the logical way in which the salaried man, with no accummulated savings, can make a start. These gentlemen state that they will render any reasonable assistance to prospective builders. To the man who is looking for an invement that will show substantial profits with in a short period, the Agents state their best argument is to refer to the progress of Winter Park where property has quadrupled in value; to Audubon where within six months values have doubled and to Edgewood, the adjoining Suburb, where appreciation in value are being realized.

Messrs Wilder & Metts are goinng to have two automobiles at the disposal of their friends and the public generally who might care to visit this property while these lots are on he market. The sale starts promptly at 9 o'clock and reservations will be made in the order in which they are received. The early caller will undoubtedly have the advantage so that anyone who is interested is requested to notify the Agents as early tomorrow morning as possible. A competent force of salesmen will be on hand and any qestions asked or information desired will be given most careful attention. **

BECKER'S TRIAL SEPT. 11

His Attorney Obtains Postponement Of Day for Pleading

New York, August 27.—The trial of Police Lieutenant Charles Becker on the charge of instigating the murder of Rosenthal, will be begun on September 11th, if the plans of District Attorney Whitman do not go astray. While John F. McIntyre, Becker's attorney, obtained for his client today the postponement of the date for pleading to the indictment against him until September 3rd, the prosecutor said tonight that the delay would not interfere with his original plans for bringing Becker to trial the first of the seven accused of the murder.

The prosecutor plans to have Becker enter his plea before Justice Goff and will then move that the trial be set for September 11th. Mr. Whitman, who will visit the justice at his country home tomorrow night to map out the programme of the John Doe proceedings which will begin the same day that Becker will be arraigned for pleading, expects to be able to block any further moves by the police lieutenant's counsel looking to delay.

CAPITOL DESERTED.

Senators and Representatives Leave Washington For Home.

Washington, August 27.—" Returned to Virginia; return December 2, 1912." A note stuck to office door of Represenative Hay, of Virginia, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, expressed the situation at the capitol today, for nearly all Senators and Representatives have gone to their home districts.

Late today members of Congress left in the city could be counted on one hand. Almost all of the Senators already are either in their States or on their way there to rest after the strenuous session and to battle in the local campaigns and in the general fight outside their States. Clerks, stenographers and laborers, but for whom the office buildings would have been deserted, were closing up odds and ends of correspondence and packing.

Out of a total adult white male population of 138,000 in the Transvaal, nearly 50,000 are unmarried men.

TRACTION ENGINES.

Will be Used for Agricultural Purposes at New Dutch Colony.

The Carolina Trucking and Development Company has purchased two traction engines to be used at Van Eden, one of the company's latest and most promising colonies. The engines have already been delivered and will be used for plowing, clearing fields and, in fact, for all agricultural purposes in which the power of steam and gasoline is slowly but surely replacing the horse and mule. One of the engines of the type purchased will do as much work in a day as could 20 horses or mules.

Van Eden is located a short distance north of Burgaw, and while it is a comparatively recent development it is already a most prosperous and substantial settlement. There are now from 20 to 30 families engaged in trucking and farming there.

The introduction of the traction engine for agricultural purposes is something of an innovation in this section and the experiment will be watched with interest.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

Negro Painfully Injured Yesterday Afternoon.

During a short rain and electrical storm yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock, John Perry, colored, who is employed at Mr. J. O. Grimes' store, on the Market street road, about three miles from the city, was struck by lightning, sustaining painful though not serious injurie Mr. Grimes brought the negro to the city in a buggy and he was given treatment by a physician. It was stated that he would not be able to get around for several days, but after that time he would be all right.

Perry was sitting on an ice box, in which some fish were kept, on the front porch of Mr. Grimes' store. The bolt struck a telephone pole in front of the store and leaped from that to the ice box, knocking the negro to the floor. He was painfully shocked, his shirt being torn partly off and his side being burned slightly. Perry was unable to walk for half an hour after the lightning hit him.

The bolt knocked a hole through the lid of the ice box and also ripped a piece out of the weatherboarding on the front of the store. Other than this it did no damage.

A strange coincidence is that the store was struck by lightning last year, the bolt hitting almost the exact spot struck yesterday. Mr. Grimes thinks that the telephone wire is the cause.

..Theatrical..

Enthusiastic patrons of the Grand sty that, if anything, the daily offerings in moving pictures at The Grand Theatre are getting better with each recurring bill since the recent redution in price to five cents to any part of the house, afternoon or evening.

Today will be no exception to the rule and two great films are annuonced as features. The one is the first presentation of an Essanay, "Her Hour of Triumph," a tense and powerful dramatic subject, startling in a climax replete with gripping situations that impress deeply. Miss Martha Russell will be seen in this picture in one of the strongest emotional roles ever presented by the Essanay people.

The other feature for today is "The Box Car Baby," the story of two hobo pals who prove to be diamonds in the rough. This is a Seling picture and will keep the audience in a roar from beginning to end. All roads nowadays lead to the Grand and all one has to do is to follow the crowds. In addition to the two feature films there is a third, good music by the Grand orchestra and an always cool and delightful auditorium.

At The Bijou

Immense audiences enjoyed the many delights at the popular Bijou yesterday. They reveled in the big entertainment furnished by the splendid bill and enjoyed to the very limit the many comforts afforded by the favorite amusement place. Today this comfort, which fits it in so snugly on warm or dismal days, will be dispensed with lavish hand, as it were, while another great bill will be presented. Today's bill will be headed by a wonderful Pathe, "Jealousy on the Ranch." It is not only a photoplay of virile nature, but one that introduces some decidedly novel and exciting scenes. The round-up is a wonderfully graphic piece of work, and it throbs with excitement. The chase over the mountains after a cowboy who has shot another is another thrilling episode.

Essanay's latest and tenderest film will also be one of today's topliners. It will be "The Return of Becky" and it vividly tells an interesting, heart-touching story of simple village life, into which, one day, is injected a touch of the glare of the city. Becky, possessor of a marvelous voice, longs to go to the city and starts, and then something stops her. What it is and the sweet climax are indeed worth beholding and remembering.

All the other films on today are stars, and today's programme is going to be one of the best ever.

VOTES FOR WOMEN.

Suffragettes Present Their Cause at Columbus Centennial.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Approximately 6,000 women, including many of the best known people of the State, paraded the streets here advocating votes for women. Most of them trudged briskly over the long line of march under the hot August sun, while others in automobiles gaily decorated with emblems of equal suffrage, followed in a long procession.

The parade was the most spectacular event of the Columbus Centennial. The procession terminated at noon and then disintegrated into soap box conventions. A feature of the parade had been the soap boxes carried by many of the marchers.

When the march ended these boxes were distributed to every corner of the business section, and were at once taken by orators who expounded the suffrage cause.

At Memorial Hall 3,000 sympathizers gathered during the afternoon to listen further to speeches. Dr. Anna Shaw, Fola LaFollette and Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Warren, Ohio, president of the Ohio League for the Promotion of Woman Suffrage, were the principal speakers.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme functica. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

Manager Williams, of the popular Hanover Inn, said yesterday that he had practically a "house full" of guests and that from present indications he would have nearly every room in the building occupied until well into September. Mr. Williams has catered especially to the Wilmington people and the large number from the city who go there every day for meals is evidence of his success in securing the patronage of Wilmingtonians.

Mr. E. N. Clark, agricultural and immigration agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, left last night for points in Ohio and Michigan, where the Coast Line exhibit from the "Nation's Garden Spot" will be displayed at a number of fairs. Kneisel, has furnished delightful music and unlimited pleasure to the hundreds of guests of the popular hostelry through the Summer, will remain at the hotel for some time yet, according to an announcement made by Manager Couch yesterday. The music will be of the same high standard that has been maintained all Summer, and it will continue to be a source of pleasure to the many patrons and friends of the hotel.

A health officer's business is to reduce death rates. Of course we have no way of finding out just what he is doing until we begin to register vital statistics. In a very few years after registering such statistics we can tell whether he is a "health officer" or not by a comparison of the death rates from preventable diseases in his jurisdiction with death rates from these same diseases elsewhere. Then we will get wise to the fact that it is better to play health officers fees according to the number of lives saved each year instead of flat salaries as at present. Then there will be some real genuine health work. But let's have complete registration of vital statistics first.

Claim Was Adjusted.

The claim of the Tidewater Power Company against the Southern Paving & Construction Company, under which attachment proceedings were started last week, was satisfactorily adjusted yesterday, the amount paid being about $784. This money was paid over from the funds in the hands of the city treasurer, being part of the money withheld from the amount due the paving company for the settlement of several claims. It is said that the claim of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad will be settled by suit.

RETENTION BASIN COMPLETED.

Work of constructing a large concerete retention besin at the foot of Greenfield street for the disposal of refuse colleced by the health department has been completed and the basin will be used tonight for the first time. The basin is provided with a trap and the contents are let out on falling tides. A 500-gallon tank has been provided for flushing the basin and arrangements have been made for washing the sanitary cans.

The construction of the disposal plant came as a result of the action of the County Board of Health in passing a resolution to the effect that no refuse or carrion should be buried beneath the soil in New Hanover county after October 1st. This made it necessary for the city to provide some other method of disposing of the refuse, and Councilman B. C. Moore hit upon the plan of constructing a retention basin on the edge of the river at the foot of Greenfield street. The plan met with the approval of Council and work was started two or three weeeks ago.

Now when the city and county jointly have installed an incinerator for the destruction of carrion and garbage the requirements of the Board of Health will be fully complied with. It is likely that the County Commissioners and City Council will hold a joint meeting within the next few days for the purpose of taking formal action on the proposition, a majority of both bodies having already committed themselves in favor of installating a plant of the kind. The city and county have been given until October 1st in which to comply with the resolution of the health board.

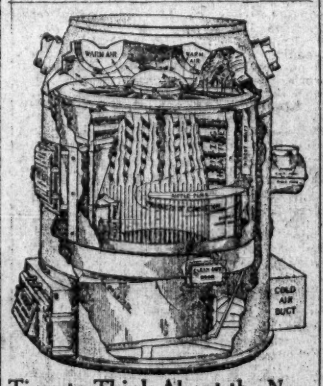
HOT WEATHER IS QUICK TO AFFECT THE BOWELS

Well-Known Fact That Extreme Heat Conduces to Chronic Constipation

The disposition to eat cold food and indulge in iced drinks is one reason why constipation and diarrhoea is so prevalent in Summer, and there is no time when people should more carefully avoid bowel disturbances, as much serious disease is directly traceable to these conditions. We need all of our strength to withstand the enervating effect of heat.

To regulate the bowels and quickly relieve even the most aggravated case of constipation, the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended by all who have ever used it. Unlike cathartics and violent purgatives, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently on the stomach, liver and bowels, without griping or other discomfort, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner. It can be used with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or child, and yet is equally effective for the strongest constitution. Mild, pleasant to take, and inexpensive, it is the ideal family laxative. By cleansing the bowel tract thoroughly and eliminating the foreign matter and poisons that irritate and inflame, it will quickly check Summer diarrhoea and restore norma conditions.

Druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for fifty cents a bottle—a larger, family size costs one dollar. Get a bottle and keep it in the house; it will save many times its cost in doctor bills. A free trial bottle, postpaid, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.



Time to Think About the New HEATER.

COTTON BROKE STILL LOWER

New York, Aug. 28.—There was a further sharp break in the cotton markte today, and while covering or trade buying was active enough to cause a rally of several points and give the market a steady tone in the late trading, last prices were from 9 to 13 points net lower.

The opening was easy at a decline of 5 to 12 points and active months sold 12 to 16 points net lower during the first few minutes under overnight selling orders and a renewal of local bear pressure, encouraged by relatively easy cables, bearish crop advices and reports of continued good weather over the greater part of the belt. Covering checked the decline during the morning and rallies of 5 or 6 points occurred, but buyers seemed able to get all the cotton they wanted on these moderate bulges, and after the publication of the weekly weather report the market again became weak and unsettled. Reports of an easier Southern spot basis and the future of trade demand to develop upon any important scale during the morning, no doubt contributed to the renewal of aggressive bear pressure. At any rate, prices sold into new low ground, with October touching 10.78 and December 10.88, or about 20 to 23 points net lower. Realizing by recent sellers became active, around this level, while there may also have been some improvement in the demand from trade sources and closing prices were 10 or 12 points up from the lowest.

The rally during the afternoon had the encouragement of private reports from Texas indicating dry, hot weather, particularly in the drouthy sections of the Southwest, but the weekly report was considered favorable and Southern spot markets were generally lower.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Aug. 27.—Numerous small orders, frequently repeated, were received by mail agents on all kinds of bleached and colored cotton goods. Napped goods were called for quite freely, while the best goods of dress ginghams were in fairly good demand. There were no further downward revisions on print cloths. The jobbers continued to do a good house trade. Some numbers of yarns were dropped half a cent a pound. Men's wear woolens and worsteds were in good demand for the Fall and Spring season.

All Profit.

"No use of talking," drawled the freckled youth on the roadside fence, "thar certainly is a lot of money in cattle."

"In the stock raising business, young man?" asked the tourist.

"No, not exactly, but an automobile ran over that spotted calf a few minutes ago, and the man with the big spectacles over his eyes got out and handed be a five dollar note."

"Five dollars? That's not so much for a good sized calf."

"Yes, but, mister, the calf wasn't mine. Now, if I can only stand in front of another calf while he gets run over I'll be right in it, be gosh."—Chicago News.

STANDARD ISSUES ADVANCE

Congressional Recess, Confirmation of Brilliant Crop Outlook and Demand For Metals Strengthen Stock Market

New York, Aug. 27.—The Congressional recess, further confirmation from high official and unofficial quarters of the brilliant crop outlook and unabated demand for steel, iron and copper were the chief factors which imparted general strength to today's stock market. Opening prices showed gains in all the standard issues with one and two point advances respectively in St. Paul and Canadian Pacific, the latter being especially strong abroad on buying attributed to Berlin. Harriman and Hill stocks, as well as the entire granger group, manifested an upward tendency. Among the industrials United States Steel mounted to its best prices of the year, and practically all the tobocco issues rose three points or more.

Each recurrent buying wave was followed by idleness in which the market seemed to undergo a process of assimilation, but the general rise was well maintained, except in certain issues where evidence of realizing for profits was not lacking. On the whole, Coppers were less a feature than in any recent session.

The local bond market was irregular, reflecting little of the strength shown by stocks. Total sales, par value, were $1,560,000. United States government bonds registered 2s advanced ¼ per cent. on call. Total sales, 334,700 shares.

Couldn't Say Anything.

The boy had been repeatedly warned about running to the neighbors and had even that day made the best of promises before gaining liberty. Yet no sooner was the door safely shut behind him than he had disappeared like magic.

"Why did you go to Gardner's?" demanded his father upon his return. The boy looked steadfastly at the floor.

"I am waiting for an answer." Still silence.

"Come," said his father, losing patience; "don't stand like that! Speak up like a man."

"Well," said the boy, raising reluctant eyes, "you've got me right where I can't say anything!"—Exchange.

Both Correct.

A schoolmaster in Liverpool one day asked the dunce of the school some very simple questions in arithmetic. He was surprised to find that he got the right answers, and when he had finished he said to the boy, "Correct; sit down."

"Now," said the schoolmaster, "see if you have sense enough to ask me some questions."

The boy pondered for a moment and then said, "Please, sir, what would three yards of calico cost if cotton was tuppence a reel?"

"I think you take me for a fool," said the schoolmaster.

"Correct; sit down!" returned the boy.—Liverpool Mercury.

never was a time in our country when any man, however poor or humble, could not apply to the courts and be assured of protection. Is it any reproach upon the courts that they have extended the same protection to the rich and powerful when assailed by popular prejudice?"

MARSHALL IN MAINE.

Vice-Presidential Nominee Reviews a Torchlight Parade.

Augusta, Me., Aug. 27.—An old-fashioned torchlight parade marked the appearance in Augusta tonight of Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, Democratic candidate for Vice-President, who is making a speaking tour of Maine in the interest of the Democratic State ticket. Before speaking here, Governor Marshall made an address in Gardiner, in which he prophesied "a peaceable or forcible revolution" in the conduct of affairs. "The people," he said, "will not permit a few to make peace or war, famine or plenty. Such conduct is breeding Socialists like rabbits in a warren."

At the Augusta city hall the Vice-Presidential candidate dealt principally with the trusts.

The Democratic platform says a private monopoly is indefensible," said Governor Marshall. 'The regular Republicans are going on by the legislation of the Supreme Court to dissolve trusts. When we see the effect of these dissolutions on their stocks and bonds a sense of gratitude suggests that on the first moonlight night of the October term the trust quartette serenade the court with 'Halleluiah, in the Glory, Dissolve Us Again.'

"The Progressives say let not the people be dismayed. We have the man who can make the trusts come up and eat out of his hand. And they surely have. If his record is any index of results, we may be assured that the provender will be not only good, but nutritious. He will suspend the operation of the criminal laws at any time rather than endanger the liberty of a campaign contributor who wants to make money unlawfully. He did this for the Harvester and Steel trusts. When he began his career as a trust buster, there were only 149 trusts, with four billions of capital. At the end of his career there were more than ten thousand, with more than 31 billions of capital.

"How reach the question? Forfeit the charter of every corporation which marries another, or by gentleman's agreement lives in open and notorious adultery with another. A few revocations and a few shaved heads will take the swelling out of some fortunes and warn others not to swell.

"There is another solution. Make the lawyer who counsels, aids, abets, or advises, the formation of a trust, criminally liable. What right has he because he is a lawyer to draw vicious contracts which will enable his client to loot the public? He should be held responsible. He would not buy a jimmy for a prospective burglar, yet he knows if he will but stop to think, that many a contract which he draws is more burglarious than a jimmy. If he will not quit, make him participate."

GADSDEN NEGRO SHOT

Probably Fatally Wounded After A Chase by Posse

Gadsden, Ala., August 27.—The negro desperado who shot and killed one and wounded three other men at Collinsville, Ala., early Monday, was probably fatally wounded tonight and captured by a posse of several hundred men who have been chasing him through the mountains ever since the crime.

The posse surrounded the negro at Chesterfield, a small town on the Tennessee, Alabama and Georgia Railroad, 15 miles from Collinsville. No details of the capture have reached here further than that the negro put up a desperate fight when cornered.

The posse is now on the way to Collinsville with the wounded negro. The people of that town are in a state of nervous excitement and it is feared that if the negro survives the trip through the country to the scene of his crime he will be lynched as soon as he reaches that place.

KILLED BY RUNAWAY HORSE.

Thos. J. Moncure Survived Accident Only a Few Hours.

Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 27.—Thomas J. Moncure, long a prominent citizen of Stafford county, died at his home near here today, aged 79 years. He was knocked down by a run-away horse and survived only a few hours. He is survived by three sons—W. A. Moncure, of Philadelphia; State Senator R. C. L. Moncure, of Stafford, and Robinson Moncure, of Alexandria, and two brothers, Judge E. C. Moncure, of Bowling Green, and Richard Moncure, of Richmond.

He is succeeded by Captain Berry, who arrived this morning from Wilmington, N. C., where he has commanded for two or three years the revenue cutter Seminole.

OLD SOLDIERS IN ONSLOW

Chief Justice Clark Delivers Splendid Address to Packed Audience

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Jacksonville, N. C., August 27.—Last Friday the veterans of Onslow gathered en masse at Jacksonville. While the occasion was arranged primarily for the veterans, they did not compose one-third of the attendance. Many have expressed an opinion that the gathering was the largest Jacksonville has seen this year. It was under the immediate auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Since there is no local chapter of that society, several members of the Cape Fear Chapter of Wilmington were present and represented the order. Those of that chapter, who were present, were Mrs. Richard Price, president; Mrs. W. M. Creasy and Mrs. Frank Huggins, all from Wilmington, and Mrs. Lucy Collins, of Catharine Lake.

The leading feature of the day was an address by Judge Clark. He was introduced as an old soldier, as a leader in the movement for progressive policies, as they are understood at present, and as a candidate for the United States Senate. He began his address by referring to the fact of his candidacy; but with tears in his eyes, he said that he did not care to discuss politics, surrounded as he was by the friends of his boyhood and the comrades of his youth. "In their presence, I can but review the memories of the past."

Judge Clark took occasion to compliment the charming group of school teachers who filed into the Court House and took their seats just before the beginning of the address. He went on to speak of some of his Onslow associates in the war. Among these he mentioned his close friendship with Col. S. B. Taylor, of Catharine Lake, and of the worthy record of Capt. Henry W. Humphrey, of Richlands.

The statement that the South fought a hopeless fight was shown to be a fallacy. Time and time again, the speaker, related, when the victory was all but accomplished. No one acquainted with the facts can claim that the South, though fighting great odds, was not, one time after another for three years of the war, tramping on the heels of victory.

The magnitude of the struggle was noticed. In all the wars that the United States has engaged in before the Civil War and since, excepting the Indian wars, the total number of soldiers left dead on the battle field amounted to only 4,000 men. In the Civil War, North Carolina alone had 5,016 men left dead on the field of battle.

The statement has been made by those who would speak in disparagment of the Civil War, that the future histories would lose sight of that war. Judge Clark pointed out the fact that the four greatest bodies of soldiery the world has seen had fought for causes that were not immediately successful. These armies were represented by the Macedonian Phalanx of Alexander the Great, the Tenth Legion of Caesar, the Ironsides of Cromwell, and the Old Guard of Napoleon. While perhaps, these bodies were not always successful, in all of their conquests, they stood for certain principles that will never fall. So with the Confederate soldier—he stood for a cause, the principle of self-government as exemplified by the authority of the States.

Judge Clark showed that by the system of Federal pensions to Federal soldiers, only, the South has been made to pay fifteen hundred millions of dollars as a war indemnity to the North. This is five hundred millions of dollars more than victorious Germany extorted from conquered France after the close of the Franco-Prussian war. North Carolina's part of that vast sum, counting interest, foots up a total of two hundred and fifty millions of dollars. By recent legislation this enormous amount of taxation has been increased.

The remedy that is proposed for such an exhorbitant outlay, is to place the Confederate soldier upon the same footing with the Federal. This would keep the money that is being sent out to the North here at home, and at the same time it would provide for the declining hours of men who were as worthy in their patriotism and purpose as any people has ever been.

After the conclusion of Judge Clark's address, the crosses of honor were pinned upon the coats of the vetarans. Col. S. B. Taylor called the roll and as the soldiers filed up, the ladies representing the Daughters of the Confederacy, disposed of the crosses.

Following this feature of the programme, the soldiers were lined up by the orders of Adjutant B. L. Kellum, and were marched out to the north side of the Court House, where Miss Julia Scott made a photograph of the body. Then the veterans answered to the "Last Call" for dinner. They marched against some five or six hundred New river fish, which had been secured, fried and served, under the supervision of Judge A. C. Canady. To date, we have heard of no casualties having befallen the veterans; but when they were through with the attack, the remnants of the fish appeared as if the fish were not altogether in water. Much credit, however, is due Judge Canady, for the superb manner with which he arrayed the fish for the fray, and that the soldiers were not inclined to give quarter is not the Judge's fault.

It is hoped that the gathering of the veterans will be an annual event, from this time on.

STATE FARMERS MEET

President Delivers Annual Address at Raleigh—Improved Methods

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 27.—In his annual address before the State Farmers' Convention at the A. & M. College tonight, President W. J. Shuford, of Hickory, treated permanent improvement of farming methods and yields and urged that the famous "Landschaften Associations" of Germany and the "Credit Financier," in France, be revamped and adapted into a system suitable for North Carolina to assure to farmers much needed funds at low rates of interest for periods from one to nine years and long-time loans, 10 to 75 years with annual amortization. Mr. Shuford declared the average North Carolina farmer of 1912 is more prosperous, more progressive and aggressive than for years, but he insisted that farming is not yet anything like as profitable as it should be, and will surely be when it comes through new methods and better farming.

He advocated a department of co-operation and marketing of farm products, a survey of North Carolina showing the exact agricultural status of every county, to adopt institute work to particular needs of each county, a rural life survey and a continued improvement of rural educational system. The college fed hundreds of farmers today and over 700 are here.

A record-breaking attendance of farmers, especially from Eastern Carolina, but with about every section of the State represented, marked the opening of the convention. President Shuford opened the convention at 10:30 o'clock. Other officers are R. P. Hays, Asheville, and J. A. Boone Jr, Macon, vice President; I. O. Schaub, West Raleigh, secretary-treasurer. The college is charging farmers 25 cents for each meal and making no charge for rooms in the dormitories.

The farmers were welcomed by Commissioner of Argiculture Graham and President D. H. Hill, of the college. Following these addresses the convention plunged at once into practical work. There was an address by E. G. Moss, of Greenville county, on tobacco culture that developed the fact, new to many, that tobacco should never follow cow peas and covering the whole scope of tobacco culture and tobacco soil conditions. There was also a very profitable talk on general farm problems by Prof. C. L. Goodrich, of the United States Department of Agriculture. Master Chas. Parker Jr. of Hertford, told interestingly of how he secured a yield of 233 bushels of corn on one acre of land, scoring a decided point in favor of intensive farming. Thereafter the convention recessed for dinner.

This afternoon there was an address on general farming matters by Prof. W. F. Massey, of the Progressive Farmer, talk on "Phosphate rock as a source of Phosphoric acid, by Dr. C. G. Hopkins, of the Illionis experiment station, and an address on Cotton Anthricnose by Dr. R. H. Fulton, of the A. & M. College. Late in the afternoon there was a plowing demonstration on the College farm that was watched with great interest.

LENOIR SUPERIOR COURT

A Bad Negro Goes to Roads—High School Work—Kinston News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., August 27.—Charlie Parker was sentenced to 25 years' imprisonment by Judge Carter in Superior Court, for second degree burglary. The particular crime for which Parker was convicted was the breaking into and burglarizing of the home of Mrs. A. Oettinger, a prominent lady of this city, although his long record as the most persistent and daring housebreaker in the history of the county was responsible for the severity of the sentence. Parker is a giant negro, about 40 years of age, and was the leader of a gang which stole many hundreds of dollars worth of plunder from local stores and homes.

Another important case disposed of was that of Charlie Randolph, a white lad of about 14 years of age, for manslaughter. Young Randolph was sentenced to the Jackson Training School at Concord, until he becomes of age. The crime was the killing of Perry Stallings, another boy, on the streets here several months ago. A number of blind tiger cases were another feature of the session, and several of these were tried, but many of the defendants had fled. As an evidence of the activity of the grand jury, solicitor and officials against the whiskey traffic, there are now 17 new cases for trial under the prohibition laws, at the December term.

The Kinston High School is to get in line with the most progressive schools of the country this year by offering optional courses to its students. Two sets of courses will be offered, so arranged that each student will carry only four subjects, and will recite in all of them every day. The only exception will be that the senior class will have five subjects. This innovation is brought about by the effort of the officials to offer students who will not attend college a more advantageous course of study for practical purposes, business training and science superceding Latin in their case.

At least one company of the local fire department will participate in the tournament at Newbern on Labor Day, Engine Co. No. 1, having accepted the invitation of the department of that city.

Two dormitories are to be erected on the property of the Kennedy Memorial Home, at Falling Creek, to begin operations with. The home, a branch of the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage made possible by the gift of the magnificent Kennedy estate to the board of trustees, is to become in time a duplicate of the parent institution, is a statement made by M. L. Kesler, superintendent of the Thomasville orphanage. One of the dormitories is to be built by popular subscription in the county and city, and will be known as the "Lenoir county building," while the other is to be the gift of an individual, whose name is not disclosed.

HUGH S. GIBSON ASSAULTED

American Charge d'Affaires at Havana Knocked Down by Reporter

Havana, August 27.—Hugh S. Gibson, the Charge d'Affaires of the American legation at Havana, while entering a hotel here tonight, was assaulted by a Cuban newspaper reporter. Mr. Gibson was not seriously injured. His assailant was arrested and the Cuba Secretary of State personally expressed his regret to the Charge, at the occurrence.

Mr. Gibson was just entering the hotel at which he habitually dines, when the man, without warning, sprang upon him from behind and knocked him down. While the American Charge d'Affaires was lying on the ground his assailant jumped upon him. At this moment Edward Bell, the second secretary of the legation, reached the scene and dragged off the assailant, saving Mr. Gibson from serious injury.

The police on arriving at the hotel took the man away from Mr. Bell.

The prisoner was consigned to jail to await the official complaint from the legation tomorrow morning. He had been forbidden entrance to the legation because he had falsely attributed to Mr. Gibson certain statements purporting to pertain to the relations of the American legation with the Cuban government.

Apparently the assault was the outcome of the Charge d'Affaires' attitude in calling the attention of the Cuban government to the various demands of the Washington government, and especially in his insistence this afternoon, despite the opposition of the Cuban cabinet ministers, on the payment in cash of the Reilly claim in the matter of the Cienfugos water works contract.

MUST STAND TRIAL AGAIN

Darrow Faces Charge of Bribing Juror Bain October 21

Los Angeles, Cal., August 27.—Clarence S. Darrow, former chief counsel for the McNamara brothers, must go to trial October 21st on an indictment charging him with jury bribery. Presiding Judge Willis, of the Superior Court, set the date today when Darrow was called into court on the indictment charging him with having bribed Robert Bain, the first juror sworn to try James B. McNamara.

The Bain indictment was returned at the same time as the indictment charging bribery of George N. Lockwood, on which Darrow was recently acquitted.

Judge Willis announced that within two days he would call upon Acting Governor Wallace to appoint a special judge to preside at the trial.
